EAGLES AT DEEPFREEZE

FR. DANIEL LINEHAN, S.J. '27

"Look,
this is what I mean by opportunity..."

says New England Life General Agent
THOMAS H. GILLAUGH (Dartmouth College '46)

What part has "opportunity" played in your career?

"Although I'd had several years of successful experience, it was a big step for me when, at 27, I was made manager of an established New England Life general agency in my home city of Dayton. Three years later I was named general agent. But most significant we — myself and my agents — are free to profit by our own initiative day by day, with constant and positive support from the company. I look forward to an increasingly rewarding future."

How about future opportunities?

"Opportunity is a continuing thing with New England Life. We build our clientele on a professional basis. Remuneration is cumulative, part coming from maintenance of policies in force, part from repeat sales to established clients and part in developing business from new sources. You might say that the agent sets his own pace for advancement."

What is the promise for a man about to enter the business?

"Actually, there never was a better time to go to work for New England Life. Our dynamic growth in recent years — 28% gain in new business in 1955 — our District Agency Development Plan, our superlative policy contract are three of several factors which should be interesting to the man considering a new career. I would suggest that such a man write directly to Vice President L. M. Huppeler, 501 Boylston Street, Boston, Massachusetts for further details."

COVER: Father Dan Linehan, S.J., faces the Antarctic, about which he reports on the next few pages, recording, too, the B. C. men he met at the South Pole.

Blind Vet Graduates Cum Laude

A blind Korean war veteran won his sheepskin June 13 cum laude, a feat which pays tribute to a more than ordinary combination of determination and wit. Edward Leslie, of Lynn, is actually quite modest about it. "A classmate would read his lecture notes, transcribing them on a record—I'd mark the records by Braille for study purposes." Leslie, whose eyesight was destroyed by a demolition bomb which exploded four months after landing in Korea in 1951, had a full extra-curricular schedule, too. He was treasurer of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional fraternity; member of the Economics Club and the Gold Key Academy. And being an excellent dancer, he didn't miss many proms.

When Leslie first arrived on campus, he was directed around by a fellow student. Thereafter he was on his own, "I used the long cane technique," he explains with a smile. He's taking his long cane, determination and wit on to Cornell for a master's degree in industrial relations. There's a prospect some wise personnel man might well keep an eye on.

Eagles at Deepfreeze

FR. DANIEL LINEHAN, S.J.
Chairman, Department Geophysics
Director, Seismological Observatory

Fr. Linehan and Cmdr. Paul S. Bauer, B.C. Law '42

THE 1955 Antarctic Operation Deepfreeze had several B.C. men aboard. Commander Paul S. Bauer, Law School '42, who was a great friend of the late Rev. George A. O'Donnell, S.J. (he donated a large mathematics library to his Department) was there as a specialist in Polar Navigation. Commander Bauer traveled greater distances about the Antarctic Continent than the rest of the B.C. men, but he was always tens of thousands of feet above it.

Dr. John A. Macdonald, Lt. USN, '51 was the Dentist aboard the USS Edisto. Since we both came from Beverly we had a lot in common as Beverly was the birthplace of the American Navy. (B.C. alumni from Marblehead please note.) Seaman Bennett I. Rich, '55 from Salem, was also on board the Edisto. A reporter aboard the USS Arneb was Warren E. Watson, '48. He was covering the story for CBS, Argosy and INS. There were also a couple of others that I heard were from B.C. but were on some of the ships we did not meet. Being the only Jesuit in the Antarctic waters,

I also had to cover for Holy Cross, Marquette, Loyola of Chicago, Loyola of Baltimore and St. Peters, Jersey City, but Boston College led all the rest, in numbers, anyway, and it made it easy for me to procure an acolyte when necessary.

This year's Antarctic operation by the Navy was but a preparation for the International Geophysical Year that will begin in 1957. For the present it was a case of establishing two bases, erecting the buildings that would house the men over the winter, and getting all of their supplies stored away. Storage is normally not a difficult problem as nothing spoils in the Antarctic if left out-of-doors. Accordingly, all of the stores are piled on the surface of the snow, and arranged in piles that it may be easily located during the coming year. The trouble comes in the winter time, when it is dark for 24 hours a day, when several feet of snow has accumulated and the temperature is about 70° below zero. Then the men have to dig through the snows of the storage area, locate the material and bring it back to the camp.

At present there are two camps occupied by the Navy in Antarctica. One is called LITTLE AMERICA V, continuing the name established by Admiral Byrd for his various camps there; and the other is HUT POINT, where Captain Scott established his winter quarters in 1902. Scott's hut is still standing and in fairly good condition. He built a second hut on his 1914 Expedition at Cape Evans, about 10 miles away from this one. About the hut one can find tin cans, boxes of biscuits, a leg of lamb, still in good condition, pieces of sailcloth, etc. While I was there one could not get into the hut, as snow had leaked in and the hut was completely filled with snow and ice.

Hut Point Camp has its own Catholic Chaplain who is wintering over with the men. Rev. John Condit, (Lt. USN). Father Condit has his own chapel, a shrine on the side of the hill, and is the first priest to winter over in Antarctica. He is not the first priest, however, to celebrate Mass at Hut Point. I did that on New Year's Day. Father Condit has a terrific job awaiting him this Antarctic winter, when there is little opportunity for the men to get outside and travel. He will have to keep the morale of 96 men on a high level all the time. But I feel he is up to it, he is one of the grandest priests that I have ever met.

At LITTLE AMERICA V, a camp has been established off Kainan Bay. This site was approved as a landing area during the U.S. Navy Antarctic Expedition of 1954-55, of which I was also a member. There are some 70 men wintering in at this camp under the command of Commander Whitney. Commander Whitney is an engineer by profession and prior to his service command in the Navy, he and I worked together on several engineering problems. Commander Bowles is the Protestant Chaplain at LITTLE AMERICA V. The last day any ship called there was the occasion when Admiral Dufek went ashore to wish the men farewell for the winter, and I went along to celebrate Mass there for the last time. The Admiral's party returned to the ship and thinking everyone was aboard they began to put off. They finally turned back when the headlights of a weasel shone over the ice barrier bearing Commander Mirabito and myself who had just come from the evening Mass. If someone had not been watching the shore, and seen the lights, we might still be there.

Soon the Navy ships will be preparing for the return trip to the Antarctic, and the Air Force will be readying planes to fly in. Perhaps more B.C. men will be aboard. Anyway, I know of a couple who would like to be there.

Jesuits and Junketing

By EDWARD R. F. SHEEHAN, '52

Edward R. F. Sheehan, '52, foreign correspondent for the Boston Globe and a dozen other metropolitan newspapers and national magazines, is currently in the Middle East on a reporting assignment.

CAIRO, EGYPT—Seeing the Nile for the first time—as I did today—is an unforgettable experience. But what overpowered your correspondent was not so much the present vision of the wide waters snaking themselves past Pyramids and irrigating Poverty, but the memory of his other voyages down this same mighty stream thousands of years ago. For had he not already sailed here with Caesar, had he not watched Anthony debark here and Cleopatra bathe here and Moses drawn from among these same reeds and Joseph and the Pharaohs promenading on these same sandy shores? However obvious it may seem to say it, the source of his Nile flowed, not from some shimmering somewhere in the sands of Egypt, but forever from the schoolroom.

As he stood there your correspondent reflected on the two years he had spent abroad and the attachment they bore to the eight years he had spent before that with the Jesuits. His chances of ever physically plunging into such storied waters, he thought at that time, ran no deeper than the printed page that teased his desire to do so.

Your correspondent did not always respond to the Jesuit discipline in the ideal manner—but the spiritual residue that the Jesuits intended to deposit he has not yet, and he never will, and he never can, wash off.

The Jesuit-conditioned mind then turns to the present state of Europe and America's ties with it. What he sees at first is not encouraging. France and Britain are deflated almost hourly before the world of power and prestige as they strive to hold on to empires that the determinations of history seem to decree are no longer theirs to have. In Italy, a land still groggy from Fascism and unable to banish Communist, Democracy seems to have proved a precarious experiment. Contemporary Spain, burdened by a government anti-communist but corrupt, is, as José Ortega y Gasset remarked, "a cloud of dust which marks the spot on the road where a once great nation vanished into history." Even in Germany, where the parliamentary process has fared so surprisingly well after more than a decade of Hitler, the rumblings of upheaval grow more audible as the division of Deutschland is prolonged by each passing day.

And yet, there is an influx of economic prosperity in all of these major countries, even in those whose political and foreign entanglements are the most involved.

Your correspondent has traversed Southern Italy, where American money has transplanted families of fifteen from one-room caves to gleaming land-reform villages; Northern Germany, where American aid has revived a shattered shipping industry; industrial Britain, where American technical genius has breathed new life into enterprises of diminishing productivity. And yet these people do not thank us. They revile us for our lack of manners and our artlessness, our boisterous innocence and out boastfulness.

It is a fact that needs facing: Whenever our dollars have been dumped, we have been hated. And we have often ourselves to blame; for if Europe is decayed, we are childish. And if America is to be loved abroad, then "the American way" is something we should stop manufacturing for foreign export.

Am I suggesting, then, that we dismember our empire of unilateral charities, and withdraw, as so many would have us do, to our own shores? Quite the contrary. But it is very difficult to justify the scope of our present staggering commitments abroad unless we can convince ourselves that the verdict of history will vindicate most, if not all, of what we have done. Surely the Romans, when they were forging their own, much less altruistic empire, were despised by the rest of mankind. And yet today history applauds them for what they did, for the sculpture and architecture, for the law which they brought to the far corners of the earth. Will not history be as considerate of us? Is not our empire (as uncolonizing as it is) something far greater, far mightier than Rome ever dreamed of? Why then, are we so starved for mankind's gratitude today if tomorrow we can have it forever? —

Your correspondent spent some time last year in Morocco, where in addition to observing the most dreadful superstition and poverty (in Marrakesh some mothers puncture the eyeballs of their young at birth because in Marrakesh it is considered blessed to be blind) he saw gendarmes machinegunning Arab agitators to death. But he was also witnessing the death-pangs of colonialism in that land, now granted independence. What he saw happen in Morocco he is convinced is bound to happen throughout the rest of North Africa, the Middle East and Asia. There is no stopping the irresistible tide. And because the balance of global importance has shifted from Europe to this area of the world, the United States will be as intimately involved here as it was in Europe.

We have been committed here already for some time. We have made many disastrous mistakes here and we will probably go on making them. We will be as abused in Persia as we were in Paris, but in spite of the Arabs and the Jews, in spite of ourselves, we will probably end up saving the Middle East from Communism as we saved West Europe from it, and we will probably resurrect the East from its legendary Poverty as we resurrected Europe from the ashes of the Second World War. This is the kind of empire which for better or worse we seem predestined to spread all over the world and this is the kind of mission in history which the Christian can understand and pray and prepare for.

B. C.'s Foreign Students

The Boston College campus has its international circle. In addition to its national reputation the name of Boston College has become familiar to students in far away Taipei, Tokyo, Cairo, Bombay, Rome and London. Last year letters arrived postmarked from Korea, Formosa, Japan, Vietnam, India, Iraq, the Philippine Islands, Egypt, England, France, Italy, the Netherlands, Cuba, Canada, Jamaica and South America. Some students wrote that Boston College had been recommended to them by the Cultural Attaches in the American Embassies and Consulates; others were advised to continue their studies at Boston College by their Bishops; still others had met and talked with B. C. alumni.

During the past year foreign students enrolled at the Graduate School from Free China, (Formosa), Japan, India, Latvia, Nigeria, Syria, the Hawaiian Islands, Canada, England, Italy and Jamaica. Foreign students fall into several categories. Some received scholarships from Boston College; others qualified for assistantships; others were sponsored by special foundations; almost all have received assistance through the Fulbright Exchange Program through a Travel Grant or in some other form of aid.

The students have recognized and recorded their thanks for the assistance and training given to them at Boston College. Typical is a letter from Miss Toyoko Omori which was addressed to the editor of the Heights and published on November 18, 1955. It says in part: "As the time approaches when I must leave Boston College, I want to say to the president, dean, the faculty members and the students that having studied here has been one of the most enjoyable experiences in my youth. I cannot help feeling that it was providential that I came to Boston College under the Fulbright Exchange program."

B. C.'s Lay Faculty Club

SINCE 1946 there has been a Lay Faculty Club at University Heights. With the addition of schools to the University and the expansion of the several faculties within the schools the Club has grown until today it has one hundred and fifty members: Deans, Registrars, Librarians, Administrative officials, coaches, directors of Laboratories, and men and women who profess in many different areas.

The present officers of the Club are: Albert M. Folkard, '37, president; Christopher J. Flynn, '44, vice-president; Barbara Bennett, secretary; Paul T. Banks, '39, treasurer.

The Club brings together for their material good and the good of the University those who can discuss nuclear physics and spectroscopy, time and motion, and management, labor legislation and tax confusion, Euclidean and non-Euclidean math, and the latest amusing, amazing proposals of Baconians. Varied talents are utilized to promote the personal, social, and professional interests and enthusiasms of the members. Experts in psychology give advice and practical assistance. Volunteers have taken into their home a child or three in emergencies. The expectant father can have sympathy and counsel from the veterans who have been through five or eight anxieties. The new home owner faced with do-it-himself can borrow skills, techniques, and tools from green-thumbed gardeners, ambidextrous paper-hangers, insulation experts, solvers of the riddles of balky heating equipment.

Competent mixers, hors d'oeuvre inventors, flower arrangers from the entertainment committee stage cocktail parties at appropriate seasons—pre-Christmas, pre-Lent, and pre-Summer vacation. Arts and Sciences, Business and Law, Education and Sociology, Nursing and Intown, Jesuit and Lay People meet pleasantly and profitably. The Lay Faculty Orchestra and Glee Club combine their talents to make the happy hours more happy.

EACH YEAR the Club through its Academic Programs Committee brings to the Heights selected authorities in debated fields to discuss for students and faculties current and pertinent questions. During the past year Bishop Wright discussed the tradition of the Catholic Intellectual and enjoyed to the fullest the long and interesting question period which the chairman had finally to terminate so that the good Bishop might return to Worcester.

Professor Arthur Schlesinger of Harvard in friendly and stimulating opposition to Russell Kirk defined the problems confronting Liberals and Neo-Conservative and then stood long on the platform welcoming and answering questions. Next year the committee projects a symposium on that trouble spot, Indo-China, with Colonel Cibotti of the R.O.T.C., just back from the Far East, on a panel with men from the History department.

The Club annually provides a Scholarship Grant to assist a senior through the first year of graduate study in a field of the senior's choice. Six times a year a Faculty Newsletter is published. In the Spring a Day of Recollection with Ignatian exercises is held to provide quiet restoration, peace and light. In immediate and spontaneous reaction to the Shadowbrook disaster, the Club sent a thousand dollars to Father Provincial (for immediate use).

The Lay Faculty Club is a vigorous organization ready and willing to give of its time and talent wherever there is need. Its officers and their several committees work continually and with quiet efficiency to keep the wheels turning for a fuller, richer life for members, students and the University.

Characteristic of the off-campus thinking the Lay Faculty Club is bringing to the Heights, are Arthur Schlesinger, Harvard's liberal History professor, and Russell Kirk, leader of modern conservative intellectuals. Here are provocative quotes from each one's recent appearance.

SCHLESINGER

"Are not the New Conservatives, in trying to impose on one society a pattern of values derived from the experience of another, doing exactly what they have so often criticized liberals for doing? This dilemma has become evident to the most intelligent of the New Conservatives. Thus Peter Viereck, recoiling from the movement he helped inspire, has recently written, 'Theirs becomes an unhistorical appeal to history, a traditionless worship of tradition, a rootless appeal for roots.'"

And the New Conservatives are also involved in a second dilemma. The tradition of British conservatism implies a sharp clash with the laissez-faire principles so cherished by the American business community. Yet some of the New Conservatives, after invoking Burke on questions of philosophy, then proceed to invoke Adam Smith on questions of practical policy. Thus Russell Kirk has called the school-lunch program a "vehicle for totalitarianism" and wants TVA and other public power projects to be turned over to the utility companies . . . They must make up their mind where they stand—whether with Leo XIII or with Herbert Spencer."

KIRK

" . . . The Christian knows that true freedom is not simply to 'do as you will.' For the Christian, freedom is submission to the will of God; and this is no paradox.

We are free in proportion as we recognize our true duties and our true limitations. Then we may act within the just confines of our nature, and act with courage, as the Blessed Edmund Campion acted. But if we claim an anarchic freedom, then we all become so many Cains. And the Scholar who claims an anarchic freedom becomes a sour, conspiratorial, disappointed, carping, envious, treacherous creature, like Professor Mulcahey, the "sp'iled praist" in Miss Mary McCarthy's novel "The Groves of Academe." We hear a great deal nowadays about the lamentable plight of the American intellectual. I think that the American educated man, or at least the American who has submitted to a certain amount of formal instruction, is indeed in an unhappy situation; and part of his unhappiness is the consequence of his calling himself an "intellectual". That term implies the exaltation of pure logic, presumptuous rationality, unassisted by religious humility and traditional wisdom, above veneration and conscience. I do not think that we are going to effect much improvement in education until we confess to ourselves that there is something greater than pure individual rationality. The higher wisdom is religious truth . . ."

COMMENCEMENT '56

THIRTEEN HUNDRED new alumni sweltered happily June 9th as they entered the rolls from the 8 schools of B. C. 12,000 graduates, families and friends watched, hot and happy. Just before the graduation ceremonies 90 ROTC young men received their commissions from Army, Navy and Marines. And Father Maxwell conferred honorary degrees on seven distinguished men: Most Rev. Frederick A. Donaghy, M.M., Bishop of Wuchow, China, lately released from a Communist prison camp; Senator John F. Kennedy; attorney Bartholomew A. Brickley; Charles Munch, Boston Symphony conductor; Edward F. Williams, president of the Boston Terminal Co.; Dr. Peter J. W. Debye, prof. emeritus of Cornell; and John W. King, board chairman of the John Bowen Construction Co.

Archbishop Cushing presided: Senator Kennedy made the Commencement address. Both had pertinent remarks for young citizens. Said the Archbishop:

"You can never evade your duty to vote and to vote for the one best fitted to receive that authority which comes from God alone. You are in a position to keep real Americanism alive in your public and private recognition of the God of men and nations.

"Democracy can profit nothing from ignorance. You have solid learning. Democracy cannot be preserved by corruption. You have moral integrity ..."

Said the Senator:
"The phrase self-government has fallen into disuse these days ... We tend unconsciously to divide ourselves into two groups, the governors and the governed.

... The important thing to remember is that your uninterest in politics will not mean that the various tasks will not be done. They will be done, but in a way unsatisfactory to you."

Boys—Registrar Frank Campbell, '24, as Chief Marshal, led the parade of graduates. Over his right shoulder is '56 Class President James Barry.

HONORARY DEGREES—Father Maxwell and the Archbishop are flanked by honorary degree winners Senator Kennedy and Bishop Donaghy, M.M. In the rear are left to right, John W. King, Charles Munch, Bartholomew A. Brickley, Edward F. Williams, Dr. Peter J. W. Debye.

GIRLS—You'd never know the place, what with pretty young ladies from Nursing and, for the first time this year, Education receiving B.C. bachelor's and master's degrees.

Father Rector and a well-known alumnus stroll, draw stares.

Alumni Day...

(It rained again!)

Monsignor Joseph M. Fitzgibbons, '06, back for his 50th, celebrated Mass.

It was agreed: Guest-organist Leonard "Bunny" Whalen, '06, hasn't changed a bit since he taught us all Latin et al. umpteen years ago.

Joe McKenney, '27, was the 21st recipient of the "Alumnus of the Year" award, the McKenney Medal, named for his brother William V., '15, the first winner back in 1936. President Ed Gallagher presented it.

Al Fitzgerald, '31 used to dance between halves at football games from 1927 through 1931. Here he recalls those days. Footnote: Al's son, Arthur, '56, in the Fitzgerald tradition, danced this past football season on top of the dugout at Fenway Park.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED stalwarts ignored the weather June 9th and trekked back to the Heights on Alumni Day to: Join with Monsignor Joseph Fitzgibbons, '06, who celebrated Mass, served by the Cadigans, Frank, '29, and son Frank C., '51... Watch a McKenney accept the McKenney Medal... Admire the aplomb with which President Dick Fitzpatrick, '31 parted with the $15,000... Cheer '16 for upping its Scholarship Fund to $10,000 with a new gift of $2,500... Hear Bishop Wright, '31, tease the Jesuits, make jokes about "25-year spread" including his own, and preach a sermon all at the same time... Clap Dr. Bill Sullivan, '30, Alumni Day's Poohbah, for his clinical kudos for Father Rector: "The only president who ever wore out a stomach."... Jinx the ball team again... Find the bar.

O, could the '56 team have used some of these oldtimers from the famous '31 aggregation! Remember them? Frank Regan, '31, outfield; Joe Sullivan, '31, outfield; Fr. Frank Meehan, '31, 1st base; George Colbert, '32, catcher; Dr. Andy Spognardi, '32, Shortstop; Johnny Dixon, '32, pitcher; John Temple, '31, left field (presently Varsity baseball coach).

All the classic attitudes of the chorus of a Greek tragedy are here struck. The occasion: ballgame with Holy Cross. Note open anguish, fierce resistance, resignation, expectance of the inevitable, others.

'31 Celebrates 25th

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY silver anniversarians trooped back for some special shenanigans on Alumni Day. Items:

The immodest, if true, pronouncement to the assembled alumni of all classes, with a challenge implied, that, "This check (see above) for $15,000 is the largest ever given by a 25th."

The showing off of the "only Bishop of a 25th," and the roaring at his jokes. Example of the latter: Of our scandalous separated brethren (viz. Protestant clergyman) with their wives and all, it has been said, "They have better halves, but we have better quarters."

The lining up of the varsity ball team of 25 years ago without daring, however, to put them on the field.

The report of General Chairman Bill Coleman which was sung, not spoken. Excerpts from the report (tune: Young at Heart)

Fairy tales can come true
It can happen to you
If you're young at heart...
And if you survive to 105
Look at all you can derive

Out of being alive
And here is the best part
You have a head start
If you are among the very young at heart.

The "accomplishment" song, led by Tom Harty, as balloons were released on Alumni Field:

We've kept busy blowing bubbles
Pretty bubbles in the air...
Fortune's always hiding
We've looked everywhere
We've kept busy blowing bubbles
Pretty bubbles in the air.

The hard workers who made the 25th's shenanigans so special: President Dick Fitzpatrick, co-chairmen Monsignor Flanigan and Bill Coleman, honorary chairman Bishop Wright and committeemen Ed Aaron, John Barry, Ed Butters, Ted Cass, John Chisholm, Tom Crosby, Ed Devaney, Paul Eaton, Al Fitzgerald, John Gill, Dr. Dick Gorman, Larry Healey, Paul LaJoie, Charlie McCarthy, Tom Meagher, Father Frank Meehan, Father Arthur Norton, George O'Connell, George Rowlinson, Charlie Saya, Joe Sullivan.

As ADVERTISED: The only 25th with a Bishop, His Excellency, Most Rev. John J. Wright blesses the assemblage while '31's Gift Treasurer, Monsignor Flanigan, and Ohio Monsignor Mason meditate.

The whimsical record of accomplishment for '31 was symbolized by singing "We've Been Blowing Bubbles" and releasing same to "fly so high."

The Boston Conferences

"The most extraordinary series of sessions ever witnessed in the City of Boston."

This is the way one of the speakers described the unique meetings which have been taking place on the Chestnut Hill campus of Boston College for the past 20 months—meetings which have brought together leaders of the community for a frank discussion of the problems of Boston and the Metropolitan Area and an equally frank presentation of proposals for their solution.

It is no secret that Boston, as America's oldest large metropolitan city, has been confronted with a rising tide of pressure of all kinds to an extent that threatened economic collapse. Citizens everywhere were deeply concerned about the situation—but their concern lacked coherent expression because there existed no rallying point for those with an awareness of the impending crisis and a willingness to come to grips with it.

During the summer of 1954 Boston College decided that in an attempt to fulfil some part of the obligation to the city in which it had existed for almost 100 years it would offer its facilities for a continuing series of Seminars on the Fiscal, Economic and Political Problems of Boston and the Metropolitan Area which would be concluded with an all-day Conference in May.

The response exceeded expectations. Those invited to present papers at the fourteen sessions, from October 1954 to May 1956, accepted with enthusiasm and without exception. The audience consisted of a great cross-section of the community—legislators, labor representatives, industrialists, manufacturers, bankers and merchants. Leaders of every area of social, economic and political coloration found themselves for the first time in the closest possible personal contact—an experience they appeared most anxious to repeat.

It was natural that the Planning Committee for the Seminars and the Reverend W. Seavey Joyce, S.J., Dean of the College of Business Administration, would invite Mayor John B. Hynes to be the principal speaker at the first session where he delivered perhaps his longest and most definitive speech on the problems of Boston and their possible solutions.

President Maxwell opened that historic meeting with an address of welcome. "Most sincerely, we feel," he said, "that we are privileged that we may have even a small place in the contribution that these Seminars will make to the community welfare.

"We are happy to put our facilities at your disposal, and we trust that our mutual efforts will be crowned with success."

The Mayor, after being introduced by Thomas H. Carens, vice-president of the Boston Edison Company, began his address at 4 o'clock and after he finished answered questions until 6:30 p.m. This was followed by a social hour and an informal dinner. Chairman Carens called on such outstanding citizens as Lloyd Brace, president of The First National Bank of Boston, Albert G. Clifton, legislative agent, Massachusetts State CIO Industrial Union Council, and Edward B. Hanify, distinguished Boston attorney, and asked them for their reactions to the opening session. All were unanimous that the Seminars should continue. The session closed at 8 p.m., and that is the format they have followed since then.

The next two meetings were devoted to the subject "Possibilities for the Development and Redevelopment of Boston." At the first, which took place in January, the speakers were Lloyd Brace, Carl J. Gilbert, president, The Gillette Company, and Harold D.

The Boston Conferences . . . continued

Hodgkinson, managing director, William Filene's Sons Company. O. Kelley Anderson, president, New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, was chairman.

It was about this time that a leading Boston newspaper said of the Seminars: "This is part of a revolution that is taking place in Boston.

"Revolutions are not made by governments," the editorial stated. "Revolutions come about when those who are not part of government become so disturbed at the trend of things that they take forceful action and either change the government or compel the government to change its ways."

Subsequent meetings were devoted to such subjects as "The Relationship of the Metropolitan Community to the Commonwealth;" "What Makes a Community a Good Investment;" "Regional Plan for the Greater Boston Area;" "Massachusetts Port Authority;" and "The Mass Movement of People and Goods in a Metropolitan Area."

The speakers have included Governor Christian A. Herter, Commonwealth of Massachusetts; Edwin D. Canham, editor, Christian Science Monitor; Austin Tobin, Executive Director, Port of New York Authority; Edward A. Weeks, editor, Atlantic Monthly; Dr. George Pierce Baker, James J. Hill Professor of Transportation; Harvard Business School and president American Transportation Association; Hawley S. Simpson, senior partner, Simpson and Curtin, Transportation Engineers, Philadelphia; Robert B. Mitchell, executive director, Urban Traffic and Transportation Board, City of Philadelphia and Wilbur S. Smith, Bureau of Highway Traffic, Yale University.

The Seminars which take place on Tuesday afternoons have had an average attendance of about 300 persons all of whom receive individual invitations from Father Joyce, dean of the College of Business Administration. There is no charge for the refreshments or the dinners which are served in one of the College's cafeterias after each meeting. The expenses connected with each Seminar, about $500, are taken care of by voluntary contributions from those in attendance. After the first year's series the College received a $25,000 Ford Foundation grant which is used to pay the expenses of speakers who are brought in from other parts of the country and for printing, publishing and distributing the proceedings of the meetings. For the all-day Conference there is a $5 registration fee which includes luncheon.

An important part of the Seminars is that they are a "team" operation in the very best sense. Everyone pitches in to help. The newspapers always feature the story of each meeting on page one with generous picture coverage and more often than not it is the lead story in every paper. Radio and television news coverage has been excellent.

What have they done for the Greater Boston Area? Perhaps here we might take note of what one of America's most successful businessmen, Paul F. Clark, president of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company, said as he opened one of the sessions at the recent all-day Conference on transportation.

"The spirit of cooperation which prevails at these meetings and the effective solutions to other problems which have resulted from them, encourages my belief that the challenge which we are discussing today, while it is grave, is not beyond the scope of our best efforts.

"These meetings, it seems to me, are but a variation of the traditionally American town meeting method of dealing with civic problems. Both gain their strength from bringing together men of differing backgrounds and opinions, be they scholars, businessmen, or public servants, who are united by the recognition of a common problem and a desire to solve it. Not merely a forum for airing opinions, we are concerned with doing something about them. The degree to which something can be done about problems is best reflected, perhaps, in the recent activity in connection with the Massachusetts Port Authority bill, which has now passed both Houses of the Legislature and is in the final stages of becoming law. The idea of a unified port authority was first seriously considered at the 1955 Boston College Conference and the specific proposal further discussed at our Seminar last March. Certainly, an institution capable of so fruitfully arousing civic interest is worthy of our admiration and support.

"But equally and worthwhile as the tangible achievements of the Conference is the degree to which it represents a reaffirmation of our faith in Boston. We all believe that greater Boston is a fine place to live and work, and it is through the active pursuit of that belief that we continue to make the economy of our city the healthy and dynamic force it is."

Will the Seminars continue next year? That decision rests with the members of the Planning Committee. The consensus is that they will continue but only if they can maintain the exceptionally high standards of the past two years.

Transportation was discussed by speakers and officials at the third annual conference on economic problems of the Boston area at Boston College. Left to right, seated, Rev. W. Seavey Joyce, dean of the B. C. College of Business Administration; Edward M. Gallagher Jr., president of B. C. Alumni Assn.; and Dr. George Pierce Baker of Harvard Business School. Standing, Hawley S. Simpson of Philadelphia, transportation engineer; Wilbur D. Smith of Yale University; Roger H. Gilman of the Port of New York Authority; and Robert B. Mitchell of the Urban Traffic and Transportation Board, Philadelphia.

Meet Bernie Teliszewski, a boy who never lets up: Dean's list, above 85 average... One of 14 selected this year for Alpha Sigma Nu (National Honor Fraternity of Jesuit Colleges and Universities—members are chosen as outstanding in scholarship, loyalty, and service to the College)... Possibly the starting fullback on the 1956 football team... Most valuable player Greater Boston Baseball League: his .444 batting average, 3 home runs, 17 RBI's led the league.

FOOTBALL—Thirty-eight varsity athletes received their degrees on June 13, 1956. Sixteen football players, five basketball players, a half dozen from the hockey squad, nine members of the baseball team and one letterman apiece from track and golf are now alumni.

The football team loses four of the 1955 regular ends, eight interior linemen and four outstanding backs. Coach Holovak is confident that he can rebuild.

Holovak's confidence is based on a successful off-season practice period which revealed a good and healthy potential. The 1956 team will be young and eager with promising sophomores having to prove themselves in competition. However, much depends on the speed with which the untried sophomores gain the experience which cuts the percentage of mistakes on offense and defense to the minimum.

The team should grow with each game and barring injuries finish strong.

BASKETBALL—Coach Don Martin will have the 1955-56 freshman team, probably the best in the New England area, to compensate for seniors graduated. He looks forward to next year with high expectations.

HOCKEY—The hockey team will truly miss goalie Chickie D'Entremont. Dick Gagliardi and Paul Smith, defensemen, and forwards Ed Carroll, Frank Quinn and Gerry Forgues cannot be easily replaced.

Coach Kelley has some strong and experienced players returning and a good number of able freshmen coming up for the 1956-57 season.

The hockey team's impressive record of 14 wins and 7 losses gained it a place in the NCAA tournament at Colorado Springs. The Eagles skated past all local opposition, missed out only against the New York clubs and at Colorado Springs.

BASEBALL—The baseball team, again runner-up in the Greater Boston Collegiate Baseball League, won nine while losing eight, including two to Holy Cross. Nine members of this squad took leave of the Heights with their bachelor degrees in June.

Coach Johnny Temple's squad contributed four to the local All-Star team—pitcher Paul Weyand, catcher and captain Paul Carey, outfielder Bernie Teliszewski who was chosen captain for 1957, and infielder Buddy Alves.

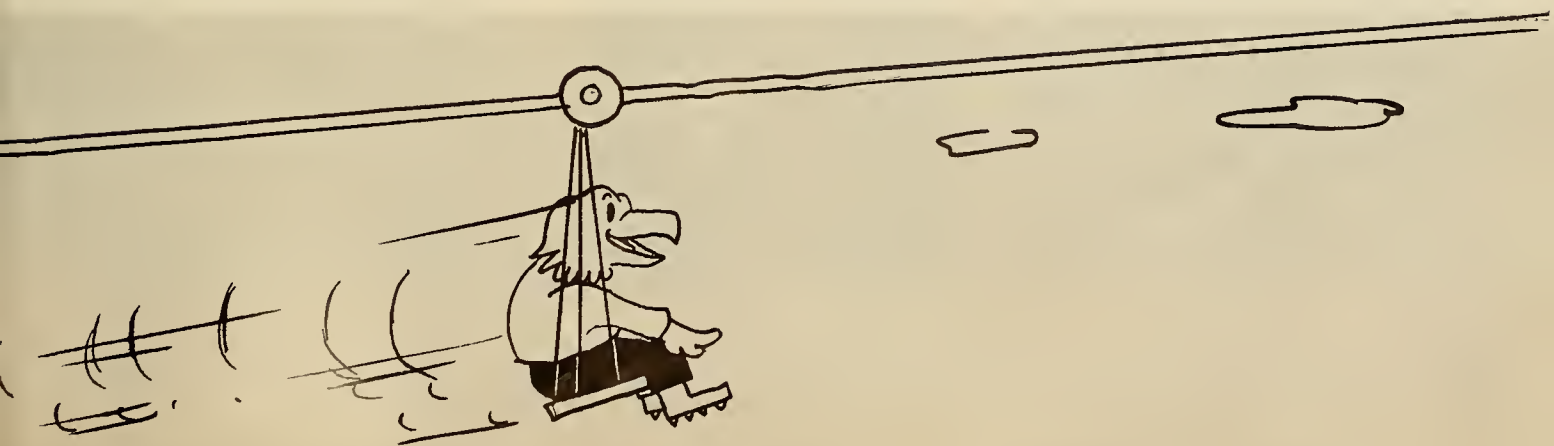

Teliszewski led the local league in all departments of batting.

ROUND-UP—Fordie Pitts, the lone senior letterman of the golf team was the medalist in the New England Intercollegiate tourney at Oakley last month.

Jim Murnane, the only senior track letterman is a serious loss to Bill Gilligan. Murnane was an outstanding competitor. Putting team first he sacrificed considerable success in his favorite events in order to enter several events in each meet.

Gagliardi, Dick Lucas, Tom Mag-narelli Reis and Emiddio Petarca were commissioned lieutenants in the Marine Corps Reserve... Chickie D'Entremont received an Army commission... Track coach Bill Gilligan was a featured speaker at the convention of American track coaches in California recently... those four Marines will probably be back to haunt us next Fall when we play the Quantico Marine team in November... Gerry Forgues (hockey-baseball), Joe Russell (baseball), and Bob Wilkinson (baseball) were graduated Cum Laude.

NEW CONSTITUTION—The Graduate Athletic Board has elected as its Chairman, Nat Hasenfus, '22. The Board is planning a more closely knit organization and has commissioned Robert Glennon '34 to submit a new constitution to be considered in September. Details will be announced in the next issue of Alumni News as to the plans to be made by the Board itself.

LETTER TO VERY REVEREND
JOSEPH R. N. MAXWELL, S. J.

Alumni Roundup

May 28, 1956

Reverend and dear Father Maxwell:

The Trustees are respectfully requested to change the corporate title of Boston College to another name which would more fitly connote a great institution of higher education.

While such a change of name has been the subject of discussion for many years, action now is imperative because use in the name of "College," while adequate in 1863 and 1911, has:

(1) become a complete misnomer of what in fact is a large and expanding University; and

(2) a substantial tendency to derogate from the value of the degrees conferred. This is true here at home in the United States, in which many smaller and less qualified institutions proudly flaunt the title of University. It is even more true outside the United States, where generally a "college" is classified as a preparatory school. Whether we like it or not, our Alma Mater is no longer merely a supplier of graduates to the metropolitan Boston area but has alumni resident all over the Union and in many foreign countries.

The factors in favor of a change of name are so obvious that the change would long since have been made if it had been possible merely to substitute "University" for "College" in the corporate title. Actually, the impossibility of such a simple substitution is another pressing reason for a change of name, because everywhere outside of the metropolitan Boston area there is general confusion of identity between our Alma Mater and Boston University. Clearance of this confusion requires a change of name.

The only arguments against a change of name rest upon the traditions and memories evoked by the present name plus the possible problems, in the event of a change of name, caused by the use of the present name on degrees. The answers to these arguments are:

(1) The lack of substance of these arguments is shown by the experience of the former Trinity College in North Carolina, which, founded in 1838, several decades ago changed its name to Duke University. The traditions and prestige of the school and its alumni were not lessened but were visibly enhanced in the case of Duke.

(2) The authority to execute the change in name could legally be accompanied by authority to re-issue degrees with the new name "as of" the date of issuance of the outstanding degrees.

(3) If desirable for purposes of tradition, a school in the University might retain the name "Boston College," though degrees would be issued by the University.

The choice of the new corporate name for the University should offer few difficulties. Possibly the best name would be Bellarmine University, since this name would incorporate the name of (i) a Jesuit saint and thereby reflect the essential connection with the Society, (ii) a Doctor of the Church and thereby reflect the intellectual continuity of and growth of the Universal Church, and (iii) a political philosopher, whose concepts of government were in many ways the sources of the political philosophy of the Founding Fathers, and thereby reflect the organic relationship of Alma Mater to the United States of America (rather than to any more parochial relationship to any part of any one State).

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Evanson, S.J., Rev. John J. Long, S.J., Rev. Richard W. Rousseau, S.J., and Rev. Richard G. Shea, S.J.

1956 CBA Dinner

The Boston College Business School Alumni will have their annual dinner at the Heights on Saturday, October 27, 1956. Make this date a must on your calendar. Further details will be sent to all members in the fall.

Laetare Scholars '56

The Laetare Alumni Scholarship Fund—from contributions of alumni returning for the annual Laetare Communion Breakfast—it was swelled this year by $1,500. Of this amount, $1,000 has been distributed to 5 Laetare Scholars. The other $500 has been added to the Laetare Savings account which now totals, after 3 years, $2,800. Steadily and surely the Savings account is growing. Its goal—$10,000, the first four year Laetare Alumni Scholarship is coming in sight.

Admission Figures

This year some 3,500 applications have been processed by the Committee on Admissions. Of this number, approximately 1,150 will be accepted for the Freshman Class in September.

The geographical distribution amongst the Freshmen Class is larger than last year. Students have been accepted from China, Japan, Newfoundland, Vietnam, Puerto Rico, Panama, Mexico, Canada, England, Ireland, France, Haiti, Venezuela, Formosa, and Bermuda. There will be students in this class from Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, District of Columbia, Michigan, California, Oregon, Wisconsin, Missouri, Virginia, Florida, and Pennsylvania. The student body has been drawn from 450 high schools. Scholarship aid has been granted to some 150 of the incoming Freshmen. Some seventy-five sons and twenty-one daughters of Alumni will follow in the footsteps of their famous fathers. This year, the Committee on School and College Relations visited some 275 high schools throughout New England, New York, and New Jersey. In this work, the Alumni assistance has succeeded in lining up a great number of top-flight applicants for Boston College.

New England Colleges Fund, Inc.

The New England Colleges Fund, Inc., is a joint enterprise of 24 liberal arts, privately endowed colleges and universities to obtain vital financial assistance from industry and business. The Fund had its inception in October, 1953 when it received $53,505 from industry and business. In 1954 it increased to $107,685, and in 1955 to $169,138.

Contributions received are divided among the member colleges and universities on the following basis: a) 50% of the funds are divided on a share and share alike basis; b) 50% are pro-rated according to the number of liberal arts and science degrees granted by each college and university. Boston Colleges share for 1953, 1954, 1955 amounted to $19,000.

More and more, American industry and business are coming to realize the extent and serious nature of the financial problems facing non-tax-supported higher education. The solution of some of the problems of these educational institutions, at least in the alleviation of many vital and pressing needs, can be seen in the welcome and rapid growth of The New England Colleges Fund, Inc.

V.P. Up, Newsman Down; Quizmaster In-Between

Of the New York offices of ABC-TV, John Daly, '35, resides in two: one on the third floor, one in the basement. "Upstairs", he says, "I'm a vice-president. Downstairs, I'm a newsman." Oddly enough, though, it's the work outside his offices that has really made him famous. For this quizmaster of one of the oldest (5 years) quiz shows on TV, "What's My Line?" is undoubtedly responsible for keeping it up in the ratings year after year. His geniality and gently whimsy, the experts agree, must be the continuing attraction for (despite the presence of old pro's like Arlene Francis) one of the silliest formats ever devised.

John considers himself a newsman, however. Evidently ABC does too: in 1953 they made him vice-president in charge of television news, special events and public affairs. Most of his waking hours—except for Saturdays his wife and three children see him mostly on TV, too—he spends editing and preparing scripts, and working against a stop-watch for his daily news roundup (Ch. 9, 7:15 P.M.).

At 42, John Daly has almost 20 years of top-drawer reporting behind him. He made the "grand tours" with FDR, covering 150,000 miles in the process. He spent 3 months with Wendell Wilkie during the '40 campaign. As a war correspondent, he made an extraordinary record: over CBS radio he made the first announcement of Pearl Harbor to the nation; he reported the fighting on Anzio, was the first to report the bombardment of Cassino, gave the first eyewitness account of the fall of Messina; his fountain-pen, borrowed by Captain Harry Boucher, Gen. Eisenhower's naval aide, signed the German surrender. Postwar, he covered the Nuremberg trials, the Berlin airlift, the Texas City disaster, the Greenville, N. C. lynch trials.

I'm sure his charming wife (the former Margaret Neal, whom he met on a Washington blind date, married in 1937) won't mind the re-reporting of Arlene Francis' summation of John Daly's charm: "As far as the average woman is concerned, John isn't an impossible out-of-reach kind of person like Errol Flynn or Clark Gable. He's what every mother hopes her daughter will marry—a warm, proper, intelligent, mature man.

I can't improve on that curtain line.

B. C. CLUBS

Berkshire County

At an April meeting at the home of former president Silvio O. Conte, '49, officers were elected for 1956-1957, with F. Richard Drennan, '50 LL.B., president; Robert T. Capeless, '41 LL.B., vice-president; William J. Broderick, '51, secretary-treasurer. Members present participated in a short memorial service for Rev. Stephen A. Mulcahy, S.J., who perished in the Shadowbrook fire.

Bristol County

Normand R. Gamache, D.M.D., '50, was chairman for the Spring dinner dance of the B.C. Club of Bristol County held in May. The recently organized club has a good membership and the officers under the direction of President James A. Heaney, '50 are planning an active Fall season.

Cambridge

M. Francis Nolan, '18, advises that "We are in the midst of a reorganization of the Club and should be in good shape by the Fall. In the interim the present slate of officers under the presidency of Al DeVito, '48 are carrying on."

Connecticut

Secretary Tom Duffy, '36 advises that a very successful meeting of the Club was held at the Hotel Statler, Hartford on May 9. Rev. James W. Ring of the faculty gave an interesting and informative talk on the college. Plans for the future include a picnic in July and a Football Night in October sponsored by the Waterbury-New Haven members.

Detroit

President Paul Ryder, '47; vice-president Larry McCarthy, '32, and secretary-treasurer Bill Pfau, '55 were elected at a meeting held at the home of former secretary John Carley, '51 CBA.

An executive committee has also been formed made up of the present officers—Pete Carey, '28; Charlie Joyce, '28; Joe Tobin, '51 CBA; John Carley, '51 CBA; Fred Donaher, '20, and Al Ferguson, '42 CBA. Rt. Rev. Carroll F. Deady, '22, is honorary chairman. Three committees are now being formed—a social, a constitutional, and a membership. Tentative plans call for an outing in August, a get-together for the U. of D. game, a midwinter party, Laetare Sunday Communion Breakfast, and a President's party. Every member will be contacted before each of these events with specific details.

East Boston

President John E. Mangini, '51, sends word of the reorganization of the "Alumni Club here on Noddle Island". Impetus for the reorganization of the long founded group was due to the immediate response of East Boston Alumni as an aftermath of the Shadowbrook tragedy. Rev. Wilfred T. Bouvier, '33, requesting assistance in the Shadowbrook Drive for funds had the support of the membership of the Club with the particular assistance of Eddie King, '49; Louis D. Bailow, '49; Emmett Kelly, '24; Anthony Bruno, '48; John DiAnni, '52, and Michael Ciccarelli, '50.

Everett

Ciro R. Yannaco, '45, secretary-treasurer advised that the Club is keeping pace with the changes on the campus and has quite a coed membership. The Executive Council of the group has ambitious social plans which will necessitate a monetary reserve and consequently a fund drive is being conducted among club members to build up the treasury. In addition to Ciro, officers are: Mario Gianelli, '48, president; William J. Fandel, '52, graduate vice-president, and Joseph Luciano, undergraduate vice-president.

Lowell

The new slate of officers for the Lowell Club was announced in March. President is John J. Fleming, '45. Other officers are: Paul Hoar, '45, vice-president; Martha Doyle, '51 Nursing, secretary; George Hagerty, '18, treasurer. Named to the Board of Directors were Thaddeus T. Kosciolk, '32, past president; Frederick L. Cox, '54; John P. Hogan, Jr., '45; Joseph A. McAvinnue, '19; William V. Archambault, '53; John T. Sayers, '47; Joseph V. Woods, '51; J. Walter Callahan, '42; Patricia A. Lavoie, '55, and Constance Garbutt, '54.

Malden-Medford

Over 200 members attended the Ignatian Year Laetare Sunday Communion Breakfast at which Rev. Leonard McCarthy, S.J. was principal speaker. In addition to Alumni from B.C. representatives were present for Holy Cross, B.C. High, Fordham, Detroit, St. Joseph's, Pa., and Bill Sherry, '55 from St. Louis University. Bill Dempsey, '20 and president Tom Feeley, '38 were co-chairman of the breakfast.

Benefiting the Shadowbrook Fund a Sports Night was held on April 18. Speakers were Mike Holovak, '43; John "Snooks" Kelley, '28; Bill Gilligan, '40 Johnny Temple, '31, and Dino Martin. Mike Doohan, '53, CBA was chairman.

Future events planned include a summer golf tournament, a dance in the fall and a Memorial Mass in November.

Meetings are held the second Wednesday of the month from September to June at the K. of C. Hall, Florence Street, Malden.

New York Club

On May 3rd the Club had a very successful dinner at the Biltmore Hotel for Father Maxwell. There was an excellent turn-out with all classes being represented. President Frank Donelan, '48 announced plans for the New York Club Boston College Scholarship and the plans were received with much enthusiasm. It was also announced that the Club, in conjunction with the Holy Cross Club, will hold a retreat at Manresa in the Spring.

Also being planned is a get-together on the occasion of the B. C.-Rutgers football game in New Jersey on October 20. All members will receive details on these events in the mail.

President Frank Donelan is being congratulated on his appointment as a director of the Alumni Association for 1956-1957.

Oregon

President Charles H. Savage, '42, C.B.A., writes:

Officers will continue for another year since no meeting was held during the spring because of the Jesuit breakfast.

At the Laetare Sunday Jesuit Commemorative Breakfast, Boston College, apart from Georgetown University, had the largest delegation of any Jesuit school east of the Mississippi.

Oregon Eagles were also pleased to learn that Arthur Vantrain, '53, is stationed with the Navy in the area and that Tom Sullivan, '52 (School of Social Work) is executive director of the United Fund in neighboring Vancouver, Washington. Both have been added to our roster.

Gerald J. Scannell (Law '53) is taking the Oregon Bar examination. He is currently at Allstate Insurance Company with James (Tony) Redden, Jr. (Law '52). John Tyner ('50) is with Travelers Insurance Co. Frank Harrington (Law '50) and John J. Higgins (Law) complete the roster of legal eagles in town.

Jim Russell, Jr. (CBA '44) has his own food brokerage concern which is engaged in introducing New England delicacies to the Northwest—Friend's beans, codfish cakes and marshmallow fluff, among others.

Charles Savage (CBA '42) is director of the University of Portland's Advanced Management Program conducted at Timberline Lodge on Mount Hood; in addition to his teaching, he is executive training consultant working with a number of regional organizations, Boeing Airplane Company and Bonneville Power Administration among others.

Philadelphia

According to current president Paul Lambert, '44, a large turnout is expected for the get-together planned at the time of the Rutgers football game in the fall. Vice-president of the club is Leo Moran, '30, and John Delorey, '50, secretary.

San Francisco

President Edward A. Hogan, '30, sends the following information:

"A new development on the West Coast will strengthen our alumni activities. Under the stimulus of the Fordham Alumni in this area, the eastern Jesuit colleges have joined forces to pool their resources for social activity as well as to aid the colleges in placement and in recruiting new students. To date, there has been a house party, a luncheon and a dance with a family picnic soon to be held. The moving forces come from Fordham, Holy Cross, Georgetown and Boston College.

The Boston College group continues to meet on the second Tuesday of each month for lunch in the Skyroom of the Marines Memorial. Visiting Bostonians, as well as members of our sister school alumni associations, are always welcome."

Sharon

Alumni of Sharon met on Thursday, May 3 to discuss the possibility of organizing local alumni and alumni of adjacent towns for the purpose of forming the B. C. Club of Sharon. The committee selected for going into the organization anticipating a fall meeting are: Edward F. O'Brien, '28; J. Murray Page, '28, secretary pro tem; Paul Ares, '54; Rev. Richard McShane, '20; Edward Deveney, '31; Thomas Manning, '43; and John Kennedy, '38. Members in communities adjoining Sharon who are interested in the formation of a club are asked to contact Murray Page at 141 Norwood Street, Sharon.

Springfield

The Annual Father-Son Communion Breakfast was held at the Hotel Shelton on April 29. President Edward M. Gallagher, '32, of the Alumni Association, was guest speaker; George H. Keefe, '22, was general chairman and toastmaster. Guest speaker at the May 14 Sports meeting held at DeMarco's in West Springfield was Coach Mike Holovak. Officers of the Club who organized the affair were John J. Phelan, '42, president; George H. Keefe, '22, vice-president; Paul Rossi, '50 CBA, secretary-treasurer, with Walter R. Graham, '22, toastmaster.

Vermont

William P. Melville, '48 CBA, president, B. C. Club of Vermont.

On Tuesday night, May 29th, a group of Boston College graduates residing in Vermont gathered at the Hotel Vermont in Burlington to attend the first meeting of the newest Boston College Club — The Boston College Club of Vermont.

At this meeting officers were elected and plans were made for the coming year. William P. Melville, '48, CBA, Sales and Servicing Superintendent for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company in Vermont, was elected President. Bill resides at 21 Fern Street in Burlington for anyone who desires information on the club. Michael J. Rock, '25, of Burlington was elected vice president while Joe Murphy, L, '51, was elected secretary and Art Cesario, '50, of Springfield, Vermont treasurer. His Excellency, Bishop Edward F. Ryan, '01, was made Honorary President and Father Robert Powers '41, was named Spiritual Advisor. Father Powers is the Diocesan Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Vermont Diocese.

Bill Flynn, '39, and Father Frank Sullivan, '21, from the College made the trip north to bring the latest news and happenings from University Heights. Those attending the meeting enjoyed the pleasure of seeing last years Boston College — Holy Cross football game movies which were narrated by Bill Flynn.

The officers are already making plans for the next fall meeting which has the makings of being a huge success. Club members will be notified shortly of the details. It is hoped that all Boston College men living in the north east section of New York will contact one of the club officers if they desire to belong to the Vermont Club.

Plans also call for the compilation and publishing, in the near future, of a directory of club members.

Washington, D. C.

Anthony J. A. Perry, '26, is the new president of the Washington, D.C. chapter. Vice-President is Anthony P. Flynn, '36, and John E. Clinton, '52, secretary-treasurer. John Barrett, '31, was appointed to the Board of Governors, and the Club chaplain is Rev. Joseph Teletchea, '39. Members will be notified of the schedule of fall activities. There is a possibility that the Club will establish a scholarship for a boy from the Washington area, and this idea will be discussed at a future meeting.

West Roxbury

Plans are being formulated for a fall dance at Alumni Hall. Chairman of the affair is Thomas True, who will announce his committee in September. The club expects to conduct several functions during the coming season and to revive interest in what has been a most worthwhile organization.

Wisconsin

Larry Donovan, '30, has arranged for a get-together and luncheon before the B.C.—Marquette game on Saturday, October 13. He has secured the facilities of Miller's Brewery where the luncheon will be held. Details will be in the mail to all members in the early fall.

Worcester

At a meeting preceding the dinner-dance of the Club held at the Hotel Bancroft in May Robert C. Maher, '42, CBA was elected president succeeding Paul L. Schultz, '38. John J. Hurley, '34, is the new vice-president; George E. Hanlon, '41, director of programs, and Robert H. Fouhy, '50 was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Elected to one-year terms on the executive board were Dr. David J. Sullivan, '27, Webster; Frederick E. L'Ecuyer, '28, Leominster; Martin J. Burgwinkle, '50, CBA, Northboro.

JUDGE SWIFT'S daughter, Mother Nancy Lee Swift, R.C.E., was awarded an M.Ed., at this year's Commencement at the Heights.

WILLIAM D. MURPHY

Thirteen members of the Class of 1911 returned to the Heights for Alumni Day to celebrate their 45th Anniversary. Here for the reunion were FATHER TOM FLYNN, FATHER FRANK LOW, S.J., JIM COTTER, FRED DUNFEY, MIAH FALVEY, LARRY KIELY, JOHN MAHONEY, ED McDONOUGH, JOHN McLENEAY, FRED and BILL MURPHY, LEO NOONAN from up state New York and BILL O'BRIEN from Connecticut. Due to poor weather four others failed to put in an appearance and illness kept away three other members who planned to attend.

After luncheon served in the Faculty Dining Room, pictures were taken and the class led by two 1964 B.C.ers, BILLY MURPHY, JR., and Michael Young marched to Alumni Field to see the B.C.—H.C. ballgame. All in all it was quite some day.

Heard from FATHER DAVE WATERS who is in Florida and DR. ED CUMMINGS of Washington, D.C. Both were sorry they couldn't attend but sent their regards to all.

Sorry to report that FATHERS JOHN CHURCHWARD, TIM SHEEHAN, JOE BURKE and JOHN VIGNERON are still on the sick list. Father Vigneron was recently admitted to a Cambridge Hospital.

In the last issue of the Alumni News you have no doubt noticed that 1911, for the third year percentagewise, led all classes in donations to the Alumni Fund. So far in the present campaign many members have already sent in their gifts. Just a little reminder to those who haven't—mail it now and try to make it 100% this year instead of last year's 81%.

A date to remember. Class dinner in the fall, the Thursday before the Cross game. Same place, Alumni Hall, same good food. Details from FRED MURPHY later.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of our genial classmate, MONSIGNOR "PADRE" SHEA in North Andover. A good representation of our class attended the funeral Mass. R.I.P.

We made a representative showing at Alumni Day activities despite the cool weather. We were especially pleased to have MONSIGNOR "DOC" PHELAN with us.

Although OWEN McGAFFIGAN has left Massachusetts to take up residence in Daytona Beach, Florida, he made the long trip up here to be on hand for Alumni Day with us—that's loyalty for sure!

If you have not yet made your contribution to the Alumni Fund for 1956, please forward it at your convenience.

50 Year Alumni, seated, left to right, Rev. Thomas J. M. Quinn, S.J., Rt. Rev. Joseph M. Fitzgibbons, Rt. Rev. Irving L. Gifford, D.D., Rev. Joseph R. Hurley, S.J.; standing, left to right, Leonard S. H'halen, John J. Regan, John P. Gallagher, John J. Griffin, Alumni president; Joseph A. Spelman, Richard F. Powers, Very Rev. Joseph R. N. Maxwell, S.J.

1147 Tremont St., Boston

The Class congratulates Joe McKenney '27 on being awarded the William McKenney Alumni Medal founded in honor of his brother. Joe has always been a faithful and untiring alumnus.

FATHER JIM KELLY, S.J. for the past seven and a half years Rector of the Immaculate Conception Church and Boston College High School, has been assigned to the Provincial House until the new Status. In the meantime he is supervising the building of the Faculty Residence at the new High School. Father JIM was founder of the Business School at the Heights and for fifteen years was its Dean.

Our former classmate at B.C. High, Joseph P. Spang, for many years president of the Gillette Company, has been elected Chairman of the Board of Directors.

FATHER PAT DAWSON (retired) is rejoicing on the graduation of his niece, Helen King, from the School of Education. She is the sister of Ed '48 and Paul '51.

FATHER PAT HIGGINS, S.J. Professor of History at the College of the Holy Cross was presented with a plaque in recognition of his twenty-five years of service.

JOHN HOGAN'S second grandson, James Michael was born at Natick April 27. The father is John J., Jr. '49.

We were pleased to hear from the family of our classmate PETER McGRATH who died twenty-three years ago this June. Peter Jr. '45 is with the Consolidated Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford and has one daughter. Stephen '51 is with the American Surety Company of Hartford.

We were shocked on March 16 to be informed of the sudden and unexpected death of FATHER TOM HEAGNEY, Pastor of St. Aidan's Church, Brookline. An original member of the class which entered Boston College High School in 1906, he was a loyal and generous alumnus of both institutions. His genial good nature and ready wit which emanated from him spontaneously, will be missed by us who were close to him. May his good soul rest in peace!

DOCTOR TOM REID of Milton has retired from active practice and hopes to seek rest and quiet on Cape Cod.

BILL O'SULLIVAN'S son, Paul received his degree in the College of Arts and Sciences. It is noteworthy that this makes five of Bill's sons who have graduated from the College. Congratulations, Bill!

Our condolences to Father Henry Wennerberg of the College on the death of his brother, Fred '15. We will remember Fred as a great actor in the Shakespearian plays. May his soul rest in peace!

JOHN KEOHANE'S son Joe Paul (a returned veteran) received his degree from the School of Business Administration.

The sympathy of class members is extended to the family of the late FREDERICK W. WENNERBERG who died on June 4. His brother Father Henry B. Wennerberg, S.J., is a member of the faculty at the Heights.

DR. ROY HEFFERNAN, 1067 Brush Hill Road, Milton is the class president for 1957. Vice-president, RT. REV. MONSIGNOR HUGH L. DOYLE.

JACK ATKINSON and his wife have just returned from a two months European tour. They were deeply impressed and thrilled with their audience with the Pope.

Twenty-eight members of the Class were present at the Memorial Mass at St. Columbkille's Convent. MONSIGNOR DALY and the Sisters of St. Joseph were our most gracious hosts.

Our class president, FRANCIS J. ROCHE, worked very hard for the success of our 40th Anniversary and he was very happy when he presented Father Maxwell our class gift of $2,500 marking our 40th Anniversary on Alumni Day. Many thanks to Frank for his efforts and also to DR. ART FALVEY, Class treasurer.

PAT DONOVAN is planning a month's vacation in Ireland.

Jamaica Plain High School Alumni honored the memory of late coach JIM DUFFY when they highlighted their annual banquet with the presentation of the first Jimmy Duffy Memorial Trophy to the most outstanding student-athlete in the senior class.

Kindly remember in your prayers REV. PATRICK F. LARKIN, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Trenton, N.J., who died early in June.

(Editor's Note) JIM O'BRIEN'S daughter, Eunice, was married on May 5 to Paul Twitchell, '53, with the bridegroom's uncle, Rev. John A. Tobin, S.J., performing the ceremony. Another daughter is married to John Best, '48. One son, James, graduated with the Class of 1950, and his youngest son, Richard, has just completed his sophomore year at the Heights. A staunch B. C. family.

Laetare Sunday found a smaller than usual group from the class at the Heights. JOE DEE, JACK DOYLE, FRANK HEANUE, MARTY HIGGINS, MOSE MURPHY, BILL REID and RALPH QUINN were among those present. JOE DEE on this occasion proudly announced the arrival of Joseph Dee III.

"PORKY" FLYNN rounded up 24 from the class for the annual dinner at Alumni Hall on April 30th. It proved to be a rather bad night for many of the class were unable to make it. However, those who were able to show up included RT. REV. BERT SHEA, RT. REV. JOHN CONNELLY, REV. MAURICE DULLEA, S.J., REV. ANTHONY MESLIS, S.J., JOE DEE, JACK DOYLE, WALTER DURNAN, PHIL DWYER, FRANK HEANUE, MARTY HIGGINS, BO MAHONEY, JACK McCARTY, BILL McCORMACK, JACK MULCAHY, MOSE MURPHY, DAN O'CONNOR, TOM PRINTON, BILL REID, LES SHEA, DR. CHARLIE TWOMEY, PAUL WALTERS, and BILL WELCH.

NICK PETROCELLI, unable to be at the dinner, wired his regrets and expressed his appreciation of the class. Thanks, Nick, for the "orchids."

FR. JOHN WELCH of Middleboro, was in Bermuda and thus unable to be present.

JOE NEVINS, of Newport, had just come out of the hospital after an operation and reported that he had "slowed down to a walk."

RALPH QUINN was quite ill and unable to be present. Since then he has been admitted to St. Elizabeth's and is seriously sick. Some cheerful cards would be in order.

JACK MULCAHY topped the poll of grandfathers with eleven. He doesn't look it.

"SILK" O'LOUGHLIN was laid up with a broken leg received while coming out from, of all places, church.

FRANK LEE, busy with teaching, could not be with the class for the dinner. He has recently been promoted to a full professorship in the Accounting Dept't of the B.C. College of Business Administration. Congratulations, fellow townsman.

MOSE MURPHY reported that son, Russell, is in the North American College, Rome, while son, Maurice, is in the Cardinal O'Connell Junior Seminary.

MATT MEALEY, who has had to curtail many of his activities, reports that son, Richard, B.C. '51, has presented him with a grandson.

FR. DULLEA cheered the class as he presented a bright picture of athletics for the coming year.

ARCHBISHOP CUSHING, was awarded the Rev. Emmanuel d'Alzon Medal at the annual commencement of Assumption College, Worcester, in June. The announcement of the award came from Rome by Very Rev. Wilfrid De-fault, A.A., superior general of the Assumptionists, to honor a man "inspired as was Fr. d'Alzon, our founder, by the desire to proclaim, to uphold, and to live for the rights and the sovereignty of God."

JOHN MAHONEY suffered the loss of his mother early in June. The class extends its most sincere sympathy to John's family. May she rest in peace. Attending the funeral were FATHER DULLEA, FRANK LEE, and "BO" MAHONEY.

"PORKY" FLYNN and his charming wife flew to Europe the middle of May, visited about nine countries, including Ireland, and flew back.

Congratulations to BILL CASHIN on his reappointment as a Trustee of the University of Massachusetts for a 7 year term.

TOM REYNOLD'S daughter, Sheila, graduated from Manhattanville on May 28, and JOHN CANAVAN's son, John Jr., received his LL.B. from the Law School on June 13.

FRANK "SKINNY" GATELY's daughter, Peggy, is a teacher at Clarence L. Edwards' Junior High. She took her Master's degree at B.C. in 1953. His son Bob, 1954, is on the office staff of the Sheriff of Dade County, Miami, Florida. He is married and makes his home in North Miami, Beach.

Attending Alumni Day exercises we had, besides your correspondent, BILL CASHIN, BILL HERLIHY, FRANK GATELY, FRANK FRAZIER, CLARENCE GREENE, JOHN O'LOUGHLIN, CHARLIE FITZGERALD. We presume that the inclement weather kept BILL CAREY, JOHN ROMAN and JIM DONOVAN from attending as they never miss. We had cards from TOM REYNOLDS, JIM ROONEY and VERY REV. EDWARD V. STANFORD, O.S.A. regretting their inability to be with us on Alumni Day.

We also received a wire from COL. FRANK CROWLEY with best wishes for our Alumni Day reunion. An item in one of the local papers recently notes that at 60 years of age Frank is a "hale and hearty airman"—he has just had his commercial pilot's license renewed.

The group above who were together on Alumni Day have been designated a committee to get things moving for our 40th anniversary two years hence. All class members will be contacted periodically from now on and we hope to have every member who is able, with us on that anniversary occasion.

The class had its usual representation at the Alumni Day Memorial Mass and the functions which followed. The "regulars" were on hand, others were again among the missing. Without any intention of being irreverent, "There will be more joy in Heaven upon one absentee appearing, than upon the nine regulars who always appear."

Rev. Francis X. Shea, S.J., son of our FRANK SHEA was ordained on June 16, 1956 and offered his First Solemn Mass on June 24, 1956 at St. Mary's Church, East Walpole, Massachusetts. Heartiest congratulations to Father Shea, and to the members of his family!

"Tommie" KELLEY, son of our BASIL, was graduated from B.C. High in June and has entered HOLY CROSS: The prayers of the class are requested.

In 1959 we shall celebrate our fortieth!! Better start oiling up the wheel chairs.

Congratulations to ELIAS SHAMON on his election to the Alumni Board of Directors.

CHARLIE MCGILL, all the way from Bridgeport, was the long distance member of the class to attend Alumni Day which was also the anniversary day of JOHN McMORROW's wedding.

BILLY BOND, our baseball captain in 1920, has been confined to his home recovering from a successful operation on one of his eyes. A detached retina was the cause of Bill's troubles.

JOHN KERRIGAN exemplified the fighting spirit of the Forty Thieves by overcoming two attacks of pneumonia within four weeks at the Vets Hospital in West Roxbury.

FATHER JOHN LANE ran a most successful supper in late May in North Reading. Although the affair was for his parishioners, several members of the Forty crashed the party. The beans were good, Father John.

The sympathy of the class is extended to FRANK EARLS whose father passed away in May.

FATHER BILL CONEYS has been at Graylock Rest in Adams and expects to be back on the job shortly.

MR. and Mrs. JOHN WELCH sailed June 15 to attend their son, Thomas' ordination at the American College at the University of Louvain, Belgium. They planned a tour of Europe with him before returning in early August. Father Thomas will celebrate his first Mass at St. Ignatius on August 12.

The class secretary has asked me to thank all the members of '20 for a wonderful surprise on April 26th. (Editor's Note) The "surprise" referred to was the testimonial to BOB BRAWLEY arranged by the members of his class at a class reunion. Bob was presented with a beautiful clock. FRANK EARLS and JOE JOYCE made the arrangements for the well attended affair.

A testimonial dinner was given in honor of City Councilor JOSEPH C. WHITE at the First Corps Cadet Armory on April 10. In the big gathering present the class was well represented. GERRY O'NEIL, JOE JOYCE, FRANK LYONS, TOM GATELY, "POP" PYNE, BILL BOND were spotted at various tables.

At various activities at Alumni Hall recently have been JOHN McNAMARA from Connecticut; JOHN CLARK from Lawrence; JIM McNERNEY, ALBAN McINNIS, FRANK GLAVIN, JOE McLAUGHLIN, JOHN CONNORS, GERRY CLEARY and WALTER COLLINS.

Watch for the 37th annual reunion in the fall.

Twenty-six classmates were present on Alumni Day for our 35th reunion. FRANK MORRISSEY of Philadelphia and JIM O'BRIEN of East Orange, New Jersey, came the longest distances to be present. An enjoyable time was had by all.

RT. REV. MSGR. JOHN T. POWERS, P.P., Gate of Heaven Parish, South Boston, was one of seven priests given special honors by Pope Pius XII. He now enjoys the rank of Right Reverend Monsignor as Domestic Prelate.

For many years STEVE GRIFFIN has been with the Employment Security Company, Broad Street, Boston.

LEO CALLANAN writes from Silver Spring, Maryland, that his daughter graduated June 9 from Ursuline Academy and his son from Gonzaga High School, June 10.

FRANK GILBERT's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Gilbert of Cambridge recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Congratulations.

ED CUSICK's daughter Mary received her degree of Bachelor of Science in Education at the Heights June 13. Ed is living in Birmingham, Alabama.

ED HANNON's son, Edwin, Jr., was married in April to Miss Madeline Lane. Ed, Jr., is a graduate of Boston College.

PAUL M. BURKE has been promoted to be principal of the new elementary school at the Columbia Housing Project in South Boston. The school will open in September.

TOM MURRAY has retired from the Wakefield School Department.

Sympathy of the class is offered to ED BELL on the passing of his mother; to FRANK TURNBULL on the passing of his sister Esther; and to RAY DRUGAN on the fatal accident that caused the death of his nephew, student-athlete at Stonehill College... ALBERT CHAPMAN has retired from government service in Washington... Brookline JIM COLLINS is recovering from a severe automobile accident that hospitalized him for several months. Jim was injured while crossing Commonwealth Avenue after attending the wake of HENRY SMITH almost a year ago... PAUL FOISY'S daughters are at Wellesley College and Manhattanville... I attended the fine banquet tendered to Jack Heaphy '23, at Dedham High in May. Classmates present included MONSIGNOR JAMES DOYLE and MATT HEAPHY. Among the 500 in attendance was the entire squad of Jack's first BCH eleven, many members of which club later attended Boston College... LEO MOTLEY has retired from Boston School Department and is residing in Duxbury... ARTHUR TIERNEY'S daughter was graduated from the School of Education in June and was married almost immediately afterwards... that makes two B.C. grads for Arthur. HENRY V. CUNNINGHAM married recently and is residing in Calais, Maine. Henry's ancestors, the Cottrells, along with the Cavanaughs, were the leading Catholics of Maine a century ago and were the prime movers for the building of old St. Patrick's Church in Newcastle, the oldest Catholic church in all New England.

Our 34th anniversary banquet was held in Alumni Hall in May. Chairman was FATHER LEONARD McMAHON who did an admirable job in rounding up classmates. Those whom I counted as present were JIM CAFFREY, BILL CANTY, both JIM COLLINS, PREXY

'23 FRANCIS L. FORD

9 McKone St., Dorchester

Our Class kept faith on "Laetare Sunday," March 11, at the Heights in gathering for its annual Communion Breakfast. It was different this year in that we joined with the rest of the Boston College Alumni, and the Alumni of other Jesuit Colleges throughout the Province and the country in paying tribute to St. Ignatius Loyola, founder of the Jesuit Fathers 400 years ago.

For the class it was the 34th unbroken traditional gathering and about 15 attended. Because we were scattered in all parts of the huge Lyons Cafeteria, it was impossible to get the individual names of those present. Next year we have the option of going back to our "Family" set-up or join the great Alumni group.

We were all deeply grieved to learn of the death of our beloved classmate, BENEDICT T. DALY, which occurred suddenly on March 16 during the terrific storm of that weekend. Our sincere condolence goes out to his wife, children and relatives in the passing of one who was most loyal to his class, Alma Mater, and the community. Requiescat in Pace.

Several members of the class and their wives attended the nuptials of Margaret Mary Dimmock, daughter of WALTER DIMMOCK, to Mr. Edward Rehill, on Saturday, May 12. The Mass was celebrated at St. Ann's Church, Neponset, by our classmate, REVEREND WILLIAM J. CARTY. The reception was held at Scituate Cabins and was thoroughly enjoyable from every angle.

Another beautiful wedding attended by several classmates was that of TONY COMERFORD'S daughter, Katherine Honora and Mr. James Fiske Gunning at St. Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill, on Saturday, June 2nd.

The reception was held at the Kenmore Hotel, and classmates were able to gather at the same table. It was a most pleasant gathering and an opportunity to renew old acquaintances.

This year the Weatherman frowned on our Alumni Day, Saturday, June 4 and drove most of the well-planned events indoors. Scriptor had been in touch with about 40 members of the class, but a scant half dozen were present at the buffet supper. It wasn't an anniversary year for us, but we may as well be thinking now about 1958—our 35th year—2 years away.

"Like father, like son" became a reality again on the night of June 8th at Medford High School when JOHN McSWEENEY appeared as the class poet. Many of you will remember the many contributions of his father, MYLES, who rhymed and rhythmized for four years on the "Stylus."

Seen in the papers recently: a picture of JACK HEAPHY as presiding judge at Wonderland, the Revere dog track. Posing with Jack is another great football center of former years, Harry Downes, '32, who bears the title, associate judge. Jack is still at Dedham High School in charge of athletics, but not actively coaching.

TIMOTHY M. TULLY has our best wishes in his new position as head of the English Department at Scituate High School. This is a junior-senior high school recently constructed. Tim shared the head of the English Department at Boston Latin School with Gordon Irons, '21, and was principal of the Boston Clerical Evening High School.

The Annual Alumni Building Fund Drive for the present year is now on. Many of you have already responded and did well before Alumni Day. As your class Agent, I am asking you to keep the matter of contributing in your mind. The goal is higher this year, $125,000, but you have the summer, the fall, and the beginning of the winter before the campaign closes. See what you can do for a most worthy Alma Mater!

On the evening of June 7th the annual get-together of the class was held at Alumni Hall. This was prefaced by Benediction at St. Mary's Chapel celebrated by REV. CHARLES M. HYLAND with JOE TRIBBLE and ED BERGER as acolytes. There were 33 present, including DICK CUSICK, JOHN MONAHAN, REV.

MARK KEOHANE, MONSIGNOR GEORGE DOWD and the "Old Guard." A buffet supper was served and SYL CONNOLLY showed colored pictures taken on his trip to Ireland. The group also included the wives and friends of members. On June 13th, Edward B. Carroll, hockey captain son of DR. WALTER J. E. CARROLL was graduated from the college. Best of luck, Eddie.

DR. CHRIS DUNCAN has been elected second vice-president of the Alumni Association. Congratulations, Chris.

JOHN REDDY was appointed to a newly created position of general merchandising supervisor of the New England Tel. & Tel. He has been in the employ of the Tel. Co., since graduation and has held many positions of import with the company. Now that he is stationed in Boston, we hope to see him more often.

Friends and classmates were shocked to learn of the sudden death of FRANK CLARK on June 19. Frank, a resident of 55 Halifax St., Jamaica Plain and a sub-master of the William Blackstone Junior High, collapsed and died on the stage in the auditorium of that school while participating in the graduation exercises. Funeral services attended by many of the class were held at Blessed Sacrament Church, Jamaica Plain on June 22. To his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Fay Clark, and their two sons, Peter and Paul, are extended our heartfelt condolences.

Congratulations to REV. JOHN J. BROWN on his promotion to Parish Priest of St. Mary's of the Sacred Heart Church in Hanover, Mass., as was announced by Archbishop Cushing effective April 10. Father John has, since 1949, been the diocesan representative and spiritual director of the Archbishop Williams High School in Braintree. He will continue with his important duties at the South Shore regional high school. Shortly he will celebrate his silver ordination anniversary.

FR. JOE BURKE, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Hingham, was recently a guest at a reception given classmate and concert violinist FRANK FLANAGAN of New York by relatives of the latter in Hingham.

A solemn high mass of thanksgiving was celebrated at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Quincy on May 27, on the silver anniversary of the ordination of the VERY REV. MSGR. ARTHUR J. RILEY, Ph.D., pastor of the church. A portrait of Father Pat was presented his mother, Mrs. William E. Riley, by the parishioners who gave him a spiritual bouquet and a purse at a reception in his honor.

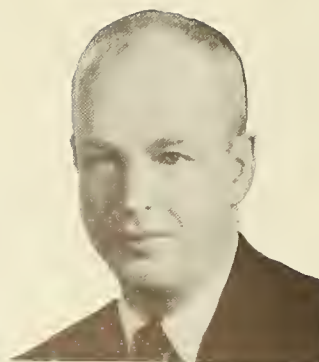

This summer, Jean Silvia, daughter of TOM SILVIA and a junior in high school, will visit Europe as an exchange student. She was selected by the American Field Service for this fine honor because of her outstanding scholastic ability, her successful extra-curricular school activities and her popularity with her classmates. This happiness was marred by the passing of Tom's mother on May 4. Our sympathy to Tom in his loss.

ANNE DOYLE, daughter of the late Bill, was recently graduated summa cum laude from Regis College where she led her class and this scholastic brilliance awarded her a full scholarship to the University of Illinois. Her twin sister, Patricia, will be married in the fall to a B.C. senior.

Congratulations to GEORGE VERDE on his appointment as auditor to the

40 Tennyson St., W. Roxbury

Our annual outing was a great success, the weekend before Alumni Day, at the Hotel Wentworth, at Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Our accommodations were the very best we have ever had, bar none, as we had the manager's own home almost entirely to ourselves; it was modern, smartly furnished and most comfortable. Had a big clambake and lobster feed, as well as golf of all sorts and descriptions. TOM CAVANAUGH is the current champ, but BOB DALEY won the story telling prize, though closely pressed by dry-wit TONY PERRY, all the way up from Washington, and by boom-voice DOC ART GORMAN. CHARLIE SCHROEDER, JACK DORSEY, TOM MURPHY, DOC BOB O'DOHERTY, and the scribe added to the confusion over the weekend.

Plumbers pounding on the pipes during Mass means nothing to you, but it does to us who were there, as does the intriguing possibility of varying ball scores by announcing games in French. They must be Montreal French, tho. Why not join us next year, if we're alive? We've hired the same place.

Had a good turn-out at Alumni Day, despite the poor day. Another fine tea party at the good Doctor's home took the curse off the ball game. Is anyone else getting tired of losing every Alumni Day ball game to the Cross? Let's get a few ball players, huh? Can't say that we took to the idea of having to carry canes that day, with any enthusiasm. That's for old guys.

Met LEO O'HEARN in Dorchester in June. Looking well and feeling well. We regret very much to report that we have lost classmates since we last reported to you. BILL CRONIN, the old "Pugger" died from over-exertion during the March 16 snowstorm and RICKARD DONOVAN died on February 29.

I see that classmate DENNIS O'LEARY of Norwood was a candidate for Selectman there this year. Anyone know how he made out? I don't, unfortunately. Last May, FR. JIM MONKS, S.J., was guest speaker at St. Bridget's in Abington. Fr. Jim is professor of Oriental Theology at Weston College.

MSGR. HENRY J. O'CONNELL, the old sparkie, celebrated his 25th year of ordination late in May, as have others among the clergy in our class. Msgr. Henry is pastor of St. Ambrose's Church in Dorchester. FR. JOHN F. WELCH (Dinny, the high jumper, to you old track pecans) was general chairman of the affair.

Sticking to the clergy: FATHER JOHN T. SULLIVAN has been appointed pastor of St. Joseph the Worker Parish in Hanson. He is also celebrating his silver jubilee of ordination; FR. JOHN QUINLAN is now the administrator of St. Rose's parish in Topsfield; he was at both the annual dinner and at Alumni Day. At Alumni Day, we were pleasantly surprised to meet FR. GERARD LANDRY, S.J., whom some will recall as with us for a couple of years; he has been teaching at the Heights. REV. T. EVERETT McPEAKE was there, too, as was FR. JOE HURLEY. Dr. MIKE CORCORAN made it from Unionville; TOM FLYNN from Elmira, N.Y., and HEN BARRY from Long Island. Faithful TONY PERRY waited over from the outing to attend Alumni Day. Speak of HEN BARRY and you think of banker CHARLIE CARROLL, whom we missed, but I note that young Charlie, a B.C. boy, is now general store superintendent for Stop and Shop, covering Western Mass. and Connecticut; he lives in Weston. That's it for now.

'27 JOHN J. BUCKLEY

20 Dell Ave., Hyde Park

Sincere felicitations from the whole class to those members who celebrated in June the twenty-fifth anniversary of their ordination to the priesthood! We extend congratulations and best wishes to the following Jubilarians: FR. JAMES DUNFORD, FR. WILLIAM MAGUIRE, FR. JOSEPH W. SULLIVAN, and FR. JOHN B. WELSH.

Bill McKENNEY's brother, JOE, is in the news again. Our Joe was the recipient of that award that makes a man an alumnus of distinction, the William V. McKenney Award. The selection could not be more appropriate and it couldn't happen to a nicer Joe. Joe is also the newly elected secretary of the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

I received a gracious letter from FR. JOHN COMBER, Maryknoll missionary, who is at present superior of the Maryknoll missionaries in Chile. Fr. John was interned by the Japanese in 1942 after spending twelve years in Manchuria. He was released late in 1943 and returned to New York where he stayed for a short time before taking over his assignment in Chile. His address is—Padres de Maryknoll, Av. Los Leones 783, Santiago, Chile.

FR. J. JOSEPH RYAN, professor of History at St. John's Seminary, won two distinctions last spring. He was appointed to the Board of Directors of the recently founded Institute of Research and Study in Medieval and Canon Law. The John Simon Guggenheim Foundation named Fr. Ryan as one of fifty New England scholars who were awarded fellowships for research. Our distinguished fellow classmate will make inquiries into the origins of the 11th Century (Gregorian) reform of the Church.

Thirty-nine of the brothers assembled at the Heights on Sunday, May 27, for the Annual Mass and Communion in honor of our beloved companions who have died. FR. JOHN B. WELSH celebrated the Mass. His simple and appealing remarks on the passing of our former classmates touched the hearts of all. Others in attendance were: Fr. Martin Harney, S.J., FRANK X. SULLIVAN, JOHN TOOMEY, CHARLEY BRIDEY, HOWARD BUCKLEY, TOM COUGHLAN, PAUL DALTON, JACK DUANE, HENRY FARLEY, FR. BERNARD FIEKERS, S.J., RAY FINNEGAN, FR. JAMES GEARY, S.J., FRED HARKINS, PETE HICKEY, JOE HOPKINSON, GEORGE HORWOOD, JOE INGOLDSBY, NORRIS LUDDY, DR. TIM LYONS, WILL MARNELL, JOE MCKENNEY, DR. FRANK MORAN, VIN O'CONNELL, BILL OHRENBERGER, DAN O'LEARY, PAUL SEYMOUR, JOHN (formerly Ashmont now Audio-Visual) SULLIVAN, JOHN "REVERE" SULLIVAN, WALTER WALDRON, FLAVEL RAY, DAVE SULLIVAN, and JACK BUCKLEY.

COLONEL LEO KEEFE has one son a cadet at West Point and another a middle at Annapolis. Colonel Pappy Leo is in charge of the Army Corps in the Baltimore area.

Bill Ohrenberger's daughter Janet Ann, was a member of the first graduating class of the School of Education who received degrees at Commencement on June 13 at the Heights.

BILL FITZGERALD is Professor of Library Science at George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee.

DAN O'LEARY is president for a second term of the Massachusetts Council on Teacher Education.

It's great to see the by-line of RAY FINNEGAN frequently over little gems of human interest both in athletics and domestic affairs.

Next year we announce to a jittery world that all is not lost because the Class of 1927 will have completed a horrendous stretch of thirty years since that impossibly glorious day when Alma Mater was forced to admit that we had it made. Big doings are planned—a Christmas reunion, a family Sunday in the spring, a statistical publication, and a big Alumni Day in June. Other announcements will follow later from the committees concerned.

'28 LLOYD L. DOYLE

46 Hecla Street, Dorchester

Greetings, chums, from Quincy City Hospital. The Lord willing, by the time you read this I shall be navigating on crutches at my Dorchester estate. Hope my judgment of distance and speed is sharper on the sticks than it was afoot on a mid-June night on Wollaston boulevard. I was crossing the roadway to my car when I was belted, but good, by a speeding car. It must be the good life I lead—I got out of it with a compound fracture of the left leg and various and sundry contusions. I'll have a new set of hospital stories for the next reunion.

Lots of fun at the 28th reunion April

28 at Alumni Hall. We had about 50 persons in attendance. Chairman CHARLIE DRISCOLL and aides PAUL McCARTY and JOHN MCGILVRAY put on a smooth program. Invited guests were Fr. Martin Harney and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gallagher (at that time, Ed was president of the Alumni association.). JOHN HUGHES and PAUL McCARTY came stag. Bachelor ARTHUR DOWNEY squired a beautiful lady and the following attended with their wives: CHARLES DRISCOLL, DAN DRISCOLL, DICK CONDON, JIM CURRAN, JIM DUFFY, JACK DOHERTY, JACK BARRY, MIKE GILARDE, WILLIAM "CHAUNCEY" MULLEN, FRED L'ECUYER, JOHN MCGILVRAY, MAURICE DOWNEY, ENGNE GIROUX, KEN MINIHAN, JOE BRADLEY, FRANK KENNEDY, CHARLIE KELLEY, JOHN MARTIN, FRANK PHELAN, OWEN DOOLEY and LLOYD DOYLE.

At Alumni Day, June 9, in addition to many of those named above, we saw MAJ. McLOUD, JOE FITZGERALD and CONNIE O'DONNELL.

DAN DRISCOLL is general chairman of the Alumni Loyalty Fund. CHARLES DRISCOLL is our class agent, assisted by FRANK PHELAN and JACK DOHERTY. Send in your contributions. We want to make a better showing on the next report.

PAT TOMPKINS son James, won a Certificate of Merit from the Ford Foundation for excellence in mathematics. Just the honor, no monetary award, Pat says. The boy will go to Tufts Engineering School. NORMIE STEELE'S son will enter Senior year at B.C. High in September. CHARLIE LEONARD'S daughter Ann served on the banquet committee for Seniors at the Wyndham School, Boston. She's a Senior next Fall. JACK RYDER'S daughter Janet is completing first year at Boston City Hospital School of Nursing. His daughter Mary will be a junior at Emmanuel College.

We are saddened to learn belatedly of the death by a heart attack of classmate ANGELO BENAGLIA, a commercial chemist in Washington. He died last September, but none of the class learned about it. Angelo lived in Taunton when he was a student.

The class also extends sympathy to ROY TRIBBLE, whose brother, Rev. Arthur B. Tribble was one of the heroic Jesuit priests who lost their lives in the Shadowbrook fire. Roy came to Boston from his home in Rensselaer, N.Y., a few miles from Albany, to see if he could be of assistance. Roy is with American Transit Advertising Co., Albany.

ED O'BRIEN, MURRAY PAGE and a group of other B.C. grads are planning to organize a B.C. Club of Sharon, to include the surrounding towns.

Please contact me if you have any news about any member of the class. I need more help in getting items for this column. Don't be afraid to blow your own horn.

JOHN MARTIN our hardworking treasurer and class agent was elected President of the Class for the coming year. JOHN MAHONEY as a creditor of the Class was made treasurer at the annual dinner at Alumni Hall, Wednesday, May 23rd. VIN ROBERTS who has done a fine job as president for two years presided. FR. LEO O'KEEFE said grace and co-chaired the meeting. Thirty Six 29ers were present and apparently enjoyed the evening since it was well after midnight when the big circle in the lounge broke up. JOHN KILROY and Dr. ART MORRISSEY received some kindly joshing and good wishes on their announced intentions to forsake bachelor ranks. ED MURRAY and JOHN DONAHUE were congratulated on the new additions to their families.

Others of us who were there: FRANK CADIGAN, FR. JOHN CUNNINGHAM recently returned from India; JOE CAVANAUGH, still in Chemistry with Godfrey L. Cabot Co.; BARR DOLAN, LEO DONAHUE, ART DOUGHERTY, who drove in from New Hampshire; Dr. BILL FLYNN, PHIL FAY, FR. "CHICK" GLENNON, FR. FRANK HARKINS, Dr. BILL HAFERTY, BILL LAFAY, GEORGE LORDAN, FR. FRANK McDONNELL, FR. PAUL McMANUS, GENE McLAUGHLIN, PAUL MARKEY, AL MONAHAN, JOHN MUNGovan, JOHN PARRELL, WILL PELTIER, JIM RILEY, JIM REGAN, recently gone into the investment business; AL TAYLOR, "IKE" SHEA, PHIL STUART and GERRY TREPANIER. We heard from distant classmates: FR. HENRY BUTLER, S.J., in Pomfret, Conn.; ED CAHILL, Joliet, Illinois; LLOYD CARNEGIE, Overland Park, Kansas; FATHER ARTHUR DONNELLY, CSSR, St. Croix, Virgin Islands; FR. TOM FAY, Holy Cross; Dr. FRANK FOLEY, Bridgeport, Conn.; FR. ED HOGAN, S.J., Fairfield Univ.; D. BUCHANAN MacDONALD, Long Island, N.Y.; FR. JOE MacFARLANE, S.J., New York City; JOHN MURRAY, Washington, D.C.; MSGR. TIM O'CONNELL, Chancery Office, Worcester; JACK QUINN, Milwaukee; FR. BERNIE RATTIGAN, Washington, D.C.; FR. DINNEY SUGHRUE, C.S.C., Lackawanna, N.Y.; FR. ARTHUR TERMINIELLO, Pensacola, Florida. We are also grateful to GERRY ANTONIA, GEORGE BAGAN, JOE BIRMINGHAM, HARRY CHISHOLM, FR. MARK COAKLEY, JOHN COLLINS, ED CONNAUGHTON, DAVE DILLON, AL DOWD, JOHN DOWNING, JIM GOOD, DAVE GORMAN, DR. AL McCARTHY, FR. J. F. McNAMARA, BILL MILLER, BOB O'DONOGHUE, JOHN O'HARE, BILL O'LEARY, FR. J. G. REGAN, GEORGE TURCO, FRANK VOSS who let us know that they couldn't come, and to MSGR. FRANK McELROY and HENRY LEEN who had to cancel at the last minute and to FATHER JOHN FRAWLEY who sent a pinch hitter.

It is reported that PHIL RYNN whose address we have long been seeking has married a lovely stand-in for Marilyn Monroe. GENE McCARTHY is proud of the distinction which came to Gene, Junior, Valedictorian of the Class of '56. Mary Alice Roberts B.C. School of Education '56, Vin's daughter became Mrs. Barry O'Neil on June 23rd. FRANK "MAL" HAGGERTY up from New York for the wedding with two of his sons Roger and Kenny dropped in at B.C. to arrange for dormitory accommodations for his son Dick, '60, Captain of Basketball this year at Iona Prep.

About three handfuls (15) of the Class including JOHN O'HARE made Alumni Day also and had an enjoyable time despite cold weather. FRANK CADIGAN and his son Ensign John Cadigan served the Alumni Day Mass.

We are sorry to hear of the death of LARRY SULLIVAN. To his family and the family of DR. ED WALIAKAS go our sincere sympathy and prayers.

Many thanks to all who have contri-

'30 JOHN F. DWYER 45 Belvoir Road, Milton

DR. BILL SULLIVAN distinguished himself by doing an outstanding job as Chairman of Alumni Day on June 9th.

Other classmates seen at the Heights on Alumni Day were REV. JOHN W. RYAN, S.J., REV. EDWARD GALVIN, JUDGE JOHN J. CONNELLY, DR. BILL GREEN, JOHN GRANDFIELD, FRANK GEARY, JOHN HAVERTY, JOE KELLEY, TOM KELLY, CHARLIE MURPHY, FRANK TALLINO and JOE WHITEHEAD. We wish to express our gratitude to FATHER JOHN RYAN, S. J., for his hospitality. Some of us adjourned to Tallino's Restaurant where FRANK GEARY entertained by tickling the ivories.

All of us were saddened at the sudden passing of NED DONOVAN, who succumbed to a heart attack recently. The class was represented by JOHN CONNELLY, JOHN HURLEY, TOM KELLY, JOHN HAVERTY and your correspondent in conveying the sympathy of all Ned's classmates to his wife and family. Spiritual enrollment of our beloved classmate has been presented to Mrs. Donovan. May he rest in peace and be remembered in our prayers.

After two months leave, FATHER EDWARD GALVIN resumed his duties as Chaplain at the U.S. Veteran's Hospital in Jamaica Plain just before Alumni Day. We enjoyed seeing Father Ed at the Heights.

Archbishop Henry J. O'Brien has appointed the REV. ARTHUR P. HANLEY of Hartford as administrator of St. Bridget's Church in Cheshire, it was announced by the Catholic Transcript. Rev. Patrick McCarthy, pastor of St. Bridget's has been granted a leave of absence because of ill health. This is the first pastoral appointment for Father Hanley, who has been chaplain at St. Francis Hospital in Hartford for the past ten years.

JOHN GRODEN has been elected treasurer of the Alumni Association.

JEFF SULLIVAN, son of Dr. William Sullivan, graduated from Milton High School where he was named the outstanding senior athlete. Jeff will continue his studies at Cheshire Academy in Cheshire, Conn.

ARTHUR LOHAN attended the International Philatelic Exposition in New York on May 30th.

The Convention of the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges was highlighted by a dinner on June 20th at the Sheraton Plaza commemorating the fiftieth anniversary of the Boston Juvenile Court whose presiding justice is the HONORABLE JOHN J. CONNELLY. Many alumni from various classes attended the dinner. JUDGE CONNELLY was on the honorary committee while JOHN W. HAVERTY served on the executive Committee.

JOHN GRANDFIELD has been appointed Assistant Superintendent of the Codman Square branch of the U. S. Post Office.

Congratulations to LARRY CAREW who has been promoted by General Foods to a new position in White Plains, New York. We will miss Larry and his wife Margaret who moved from Milton to Stamford, Connecticut. The best of luck to you Larry in your new position.

KEVIN HOBAN, son of Redmond Hoban, graduated from Boston College High School in June, was the recipient of a first prize in French.

CHARLIE MURPHY'S son Charles, Jr. has been commissioned an Ensign in the U. S. Navy and is stationed in Washington, D. C.

When classes resume at the Heights in September, the JOHN JOE KELLYS will have three sons as students.

THOMAS L. KELLY, Jr. graduated from Boston College High School in June and will enter Boston College in September, following his father's pattern.

TED HOPPE has achieved distinction as a leader in the field of Safety Education as Director of Safety Education for the City of Poston. Ted was at Atlantic City May 2-3 representing Mayor John B. Hynes at the President's Conference on Highway Safety by invitation of the White House.

'31 JOHN P. BARRY 370 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brookline

The activities of the Class of 1931 are never adjourned sine die! A continuous program throughout the years has kept alive a genuine friendship among the members so that they plunged in wholeheartedly during this silver anniversary year to make it a continuous celebration.

Support was forthcoming in planning, working and contributing so that Alma Mater was the recipient of a gift of $15,000 Cash—not from a few angels—but from the generous support of the class as a whole.

Following the supper dance and stag dinner previously reported, we enjoyed a very successful family communion breakfast at the College on May 6. FR. MEEHAN and NORTON were rewarded for their efforts by the sight of the many charming families present.

Alumni Week activities opened with 133 in attendance at a dinner dance at the New Ocean House on June 9. We were pleased to have as guests Ed. Gallagher, president of the Alumni Association, and Bill Flynn, the indispensable executive secretary, together with their ladies. It would be difficult to list all present; however, we might mention

MSGR. "PENNY" MASON, on from Ohio, MIKE FINN from Syracuse; DR. and MRS. TOM DALY from Palm Beach, and DR. and MRS. FRED LABRECQUE from Connecticut. Several folks took advantage of the opportunity to remain overnight at the Ocean House.

On Friday night the cocktail hour and buffet at Alumni Hall found JERRY DOYLE, JOHN MURPHY and FRANK BERTSCH on from New York.

The inclement weather on Alumni Day did not dampen the enthusiasm but it did alter the program and Mass was celebrated in the Library and was succeeded by the business meeting. At the Mass at which BISHOP WRIGHT presided were MSGRS. FLANIGAN, MASON and GRIFFIN. At the business meeting the Bishop held the spotlight with a delightful talk. We much regretted the fact that he could not remain with us but had to leave for New York just at lunch time. The lunch was held in Alumni Hall. Featured guest was Fr. Harney, S.J. Then came the parade of antique cars and genuine antiques . . . 25-year men. They tell me that they are still picking balloons out of the trees in Dover and Wellesley.

Random notes: On April 26 a reception was tendered TOMMY MEAGHER, principal of the Washington Irving School . . . The National Association of Postal Inspectors held a convention at Swampscott and CHARLIE HAYES was elected state president. . . The Class extends its sympathy to JOHN WALSH on the recent death of his mother . . . MR. and MRS. HAROLD FORD of Weymouth are proud of their son George who was granted a four-year scholarship to Holy Cross.

JOHN BARRY attended the grammar school graduation of his nephew, Henry F. Barry, Jr., son of Henry F., '26 at Floral Park, L. I., in June. The youngster plans to be at University Heights with the Class of 1964.

See you next year.

'32 JOHN P. CONNOR 24 Crestwood Circle, Norwood

At a luncheon held at Tallino's on June 27th, class officers and several members of '32 formulated plans for the successful celebration of our 25th Anniversary. President ED GALLAGHER appointed MONSIGNOR JAMES COTTER and "RED" REARDON as co-chairmen of activities for the anniversary year. A dinner dance will be held on October 12th for which the co-chairmen will be ED HURLEY and GERRY KELLY. Details will be in the mail to all members. FRANK SULLIVAN came all the way up from Washington to attend the initial meeting. He brought along his wife and three children.

Keep our 25th in mind and be prepared to join classmates at the special affairs planned to make our anniversary outstanding.

Congratulations again to DR. BILL EGAN—his wife presented him with his eleventh child—a girl. Giving Bill competition is JIM DONOVAN, expecting his eleventh in August. Also to be acclaimed—PAUL MCSWEENEY, whose wife presented him with two children last year (not twins).

JIM HAYDEN acted as a judge for the Annual Science Fair held by the Swansea Public Schools last April.

Don't forget: 1932—1957!

'33 JAMES M. CONNOLLY

10 Pine St., Belmont

The class salutes JOHN MAHONEY who jumped in front of a fast-moving train to save an 83 year old man in Wakefield. John is married, the father of two children, and has been recently promoted in the Wakefield police department.

JOHN HANRAHAN has won another Fulbright Award and will be going to Holland in August with his family. John will live in Holland for a year.

CHARLIE O'BRIEN has been elected first vice-president of the Alumni Association.

FRANK LANG has been active in the field of liturgical music and sang recently at the Mass opening the convention of Catholic Music Educators in Boston.

CHARLIE QUINN and NEIL SULLIVAN will be golfing together at Pocasset this summer.

JOHN CURLEY'S son graduated from Phillips Andover this June.

ART BALLOU has been editing the CYO page in the Pilot; BILL BAKER is a traffic consultant with New England Tel. & Tel. in Providence, R.I. He has six children. BUD ROY is Eastern representative for one of the large oil companies. He and BILL HOGAN had a chance meeting at La Guardia airport recently. JERRY GATTURNA is a parole officer with the Mass. Parole Board.

JOHN CARR became the father of his fourth child recently, and DR. JOHN SULLIVAN was godfather for DR. SAL MESSINA'S new son a few weeks ago.

FATHER CHRIS GRIFFIN was recently made a Monsignor. He is serving as State Chaplain of the K. of C. and also Chaplain for the Mass. House of Representatives. He is the administrator of the beautiful new chapel at the South Station.

EDDIE JACKMAUH has a boy entering Boston Latin School next fall.

FATHER FRANK ENNIS, S.J., is professor of Latin and French at the School for Delayed Vocations.

TOM JONES made his annual trip south with the baseball team and played a little golf also.

JOE DOLAN has happily recovered from his siege of polio and is the new manager of Sears Roebuck in Bridgeport, Conn.

MAURICE WHALEN served as director for the Mental Health Campaign in Mass., and DENNIS RYAN, clerk of the Quincy District Court headed the Lawyer's Division in the 1956 Quincy Red Cross campaign.

'34 DANIEL I. CRONIN

54 Arborway, Jamaica Plain

FATHER BILL NOONAN has been reassigned to St. Gregory's Parish in Dorchester.

JACK DACEY is now a member of the Alumni Fund Council. Incidentally, the class didn't do too well in the spring drive for the Alumni Fund. Your contribution during the summer months will lighten the work of Class Agent, CHICK ARTE-SANI, and his assistants during the latter part of the year.

JOHN HURLEY, radio tycoon of Worcester, welcomed his fifth daughter in January. John rewarded Mrs. Hurley with a trip to the West Coast during the spring.

JERRY O'CONNOR, John Hancock vice-president, recently announced the arrival of the 10th little O'Connor. Jerry's inseparable pal, JOE O'CONNOR, is with the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company of Syracuse. Joe brings his wife and two children to summer on Cape Cod each year, however.

WESTON LYONS recently opened a new insurance office at Scituate. He also has a real estate and insurance office in South Boston.

'35 EDWARD J. O'BRIEN

On the evening of May 31 a most successful Class Dinner was held at Alumni Hall. It was both in the nature of a happy reunion for all present, and at the same time a testimonial to our classmate JOHN GRIFFIN, who is the new President of the Alumni Association. We of 1935 are proud that one of our members has been chosen for this esteemed honor, wish him a most successful year, and pledge ourselves in any way possible to help him make it such.

Many thanks are due DAN HOLLAND, Chairman of our Annual Dinner, for the work and thought which he gave to making sure that we had such an enjoyable evening.

Classmates whom we hadn't seen for Lo! many years, turned up to make the evening the best we've had since trodding down The Hill with sheepskins tucked under our arms. CDR. TONY DEVICO, U.S.N., Legal Officer at the New London Sub Base was present to marvel at the changes which nature has wrought in us.

Tony was the guest of DOM DeSTEFANO, who was the first to have the foresight to bring along his Sub Turri. For the most part it was a great help, but in one or two cases we were forced to take another look.

I'm proud to report that all three EDDIE O'BRIENS were present, also, I'm quite sure, for the first time. Match that, you of other sur-titles, if you can.

JOHN KENNEY was an early arrival, having come down from his Manchester, N.H. insurance underwriting chores to be present.

WALLY MATHIESON journeyed up from Newport, R.I., where he is Torpedo Design Engineer.

REV. FR. MERRILL GREENE, S.J. who is presently serving at Weston College, was enthusiastically greeted by all hands.

EDWARD P. DEVENEY — Class 1931

HENRY SHANLEY is Lead Agent for T.W.A. at East Boston.

FRANK GOOD, who was nosed out by such a slim margin in the last election, has again tossed his Dobbs into the ring for the post of State Senator from the Second Middlesex District. This time we know he'll make it, if he knows when it's judicious to miss a short putt here and there.

All hands were most happy to welcome REV. FR. TOM MULVEHILL, S.J., returned home after many years in Bagdad.

BILL GIBLIN forwarded a wire expressing his regrets at not being able to break bread with us, wished JOHN GRIFFIN every success, and reported that the Monaco nuptials, at which he was present, went very well.

Hustled about for a Blue Ribbon to present to NICK FRANEY when he announced that his son was entering The College in September, only to have it trumped by BOB DUFFY, who's daughter will then be a Sophomore. Tempus—ah, well.

A most sincere letter was received from JOHN DALY, who would have been with us if it were at all possible, but his TV and radio schedules had him completely entwined. The Class takes great pride in John's countless achievements in his chosen field, and hopes that before our foreheads recede much further he'll find it possible for us to tell him so personally.

'36 JOSEPH P. KEATING

24 High Street, Natick

The three anniversary year functions were well attended, particularly the Alumni Day activities when over 40 showed-up to eat, talk and parade in fancy blue hats. Congratulations to President MARK DALTON for his fine work in directing the events.

FATHER LOUIS DELAHOYDE, now Chancellor of the Diocese of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, won honors for travelling the most miles to be at Alumni Day—or maybe it was DR. JIM O'LEARY of Framingham who returned home from a trip to Europe in order to be at the Reunion.

ED GORMAN is now Asst. Director of VA Contact Services, Washington, D.C.; CHARLIE SAMPSON is Field Director for the National Foundation of Community Chests and Councils, Inc.; FATHER DAVE ROCHE of Woburn has been appointed pastor of St. Paul's Church, Orwell, Vermont.

The sympathy of the Class is extended to DR. ED MERRICK on the death of his wife in the spring and to FRANK MCCARTHY on the death of his mother.

'37 ALBERT J. SULLIVAN

6 Powderhouse Ter., Medford

ED CAVAN was recently appointed manager of the contract bond department of Mass. Bonding and Insurance Co. Ed, with more than 15 years bonding experience under his belt, was formerly bond superintendent of the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Co. at Syracuse, N.Y.

ERIC STENHOLM chose a peculiar subject to brief Norwood Rotarians on this spring when he addressed their luncheon meeting: Aspects of embezzlement control, with particular reference to the fabulous Wily Willy. Odd. Eric, who C. P. A.'s out of his own Framingham (used to be Natick) office, is teaching part time in the business school.

DR. ARTHUR KENNEDY finally went and did it. This spring he, and Rita M. Hartigan of Lowell were married in that city. The bride's brother, Father Edward F. Hartigan, chaplain of the state prison, performed the ceremony; Arthur's brother, Father John H. Kennedy, O.M.I. assisted. Send congratulations to 69 Glenn Road, Lowell.

ART DURKIN is up to his neck in small business. After 15 years with G.E. he started AMP, Inc., a metal processing concern. New quarters in Wakefield; Art is soon moving to Melrose.

FATHER FRANCIS A. SMALL, S.J., who left our class before graduation to enter the novitiate, is now chairman of the history and government departments and director of the University library at Fairfield University.

JOE VAAS this past year added a second son, Kevin, to his menage. Joe's still with John Hancock, is finishing up spare-time studies for his CLU certificate.

During Alumni Day, '37, had its own small non-anniversary luncheon. Attending: FATHER FRED ADELMANN, VIN DUNPHY, AL FOLKARD and yours truly. Al, by the way is president of the Lay Faculty Club. (see page 7).

The May reunion of '37 was eminently successful for a strange combination of negative reasons: first, it was an Ember day; second, the amplifying system broke down. Hence the 27 attendants and their wives couldn't eat before 12 (ham and roast beef are hardly fast-day fare), and they couldn't dance because the to-be-piped-in music never showed. Result? Everyone gathered in, or strolled between, small groups and talked. O, the bar (which was not verboten) helped. Roster of the faithful: GEORGE CURTIN, JOE BARRY, ANGELO DIMATTIA, JIM NOLAN, DR. JOHN McMANAMA, BILL DOHERTY, AL SULLIVAN, GEORGE KILLION, GENE BONNER, TOM GAQUIN, JIM DINEEN, JOHN BONNER, DR. FRED FORD, BEN HINES, ED PHILLIPS, JOE MCCARTHY, FRED GORGONE, JACK COUGHLAN, BOB PROVASOLI, ERIC STENHOLM, ARTHUR DURKIN, TOM SULLIVAN, JOE GARRAHAN, JIM DOHERTY, FRANCIS KEEFE, JOE MITCHELL, FATHER FRED ADELMANN, S.J.

'38 THOMAS F. TRUE, JR. 37 Pomfret St., West Roxbury

Our class can boast of the popularity and ability of its members among the local B.C. Clubs. TOM FEELEY is president of the Malden-Medford Club; PAUL SCHULTZ is immediate past president of the Worcester Club, and DR. JIM BLUTE is a director of the newly organized affiliate in Bristol County.

Due, in large part, to the efforts of our class agent BOB CALLAHAN, we showed an increase in the number of contributors from the class and a larger amount contributed to the 1955 Alumni Fund. Bob, we learned on Alumni Day, is the father of a daughter, 10 months old. Other classmates to turn out for our eighteenth anniversary were JIM O'HARE who "volunteers" to take over the social activities of the class unless the present administration takes action; ED CADY, JOHN MORRIS, assisting alumni secretary Bill Flynn to help make things run smoothly; JOHN FINNERTY, BOB CURTIS—I mentioned to Bob that our 25th anniversary celebration will fall at the same time as the 100th anniversary of the founding of the College and that our class gift in 1963 should be in keeping with the Boston College Centennial. We agreed that it is not too soon to start thinking and planning in that direction. The military was represented by LIEUT. COL. "JUNIE" KING and PAUL CUNNIFF. "Junie" was home on leave, living with his family in Scituate before reporting to Fort Monroe to serve on the Continental Army Command. Paul is with the Air Force, stationed in Washington. He expects to have his oldest boy enter B.C. High in the Fall. Druggist JACK FITZGERALD and ED TOOMEY arrived for the evening buffet.

TOM MacFARLAND is with the Stromberg-Carlson Co. in Rochester, N. Y. GENE SOLES has been admitted to partnership in Portsmouth, N.H.'s oldest insurance company, John Sise Insurance Co. Previously he had been an account executive and survey specialist for the firm. Gene has also been active in civic affairs in that city. He is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce, served as a member of the City Council, was president of the Portsmouth Insurance Agents Ass'n and is currently a director on the executive committee of the New Hampshire Ass'n of Insurance Agents.

WARREN CRONIN has been appointed to the position of "Veterans Administration Area Personnel Chief" for the New England states and New York. In his new position he supervises the various Personnel programs in the 25 V.A. Hospitals and 9 Medical Clinics located in that area. The activities include Recruitment, Placement, Employee Relations, Training, Classification, Wage Administration, and the Civil Service Boards of Examiners located at each V.A. installation. He is now located at the V.A. Area Medical Office, 17 Court St., Boston. Warren was Chief of Personnel at the V. A. Hospital Lyons, N.J. and V.A. Hospital Rutland Hgts., Mass.

Robert Philip Horne was born on May 21st making it two girls and two boys for the JOE HORNES.

His wife and children are still in New Jersey but they will return to Mass. as soon as the building of their new home is completed in Wayland. The Cronins have 4 children, all girls: Pamela 11, Martha 7, Cynthia 5, and Deborra 3. If any of our classmates have 4 boys in the same age brackets they will be happy to entertain them in Wayland any time after June 15.

'39 THOMAS F. TURNAN 151 S. Angell St., Providence, R.I.

The 17th Alumni Day Reunion of the Class began with luncheon at Tallino's on Route 9 with 25 members on hand and FR. JOHN D. CROWLEY, S.J., as our guest. Elections followed and the 1956-57 officers are: Pres. PAUL NEEDHAM, Vice-Pres. LARRY FITZGERALD, Sec.-Treas. TOM TURNAN who calls attention to his change of address now correctly shown above.

FR. PAUL GALLIVAN was unable to attend, having departed for the Continent. FR. CHARLES PESCIA, curate at St. Colman's, Brockton took off for Milan and Rome in April. FR. JOHN V. DRISCOLL, S.J., is in the Eternal City for advanced studies. Also racking up overseas mileage on the secular side is BOB GRIFFIN who was last reported in Jerusalem en route to Iran as a member of the U.S. Operations Mission with the International Cooperation Administration.

Amongst the stay put segments of the Class are DR. EDMUND QUINN, Radiologist at Bon Secours Hospital and practicing in Lawrence. He is married to the former Barbara Winters and they have one boy, one year plus. JIM GILLIGAN announces the addition of Jr., making two girls and a boy. BILL FLYNN reports that his fifth youngster, and fourth boy, was born March 16th. Amongst the Thirty-Niners at the Heights: PAUL BANKS is Ass't. Professor of Mathematics at the College of Arts and Sciences. PAUL DEVLIN is a full Professor in the Accounting Dept. of the Business School, one of the youngest men to achieve such a distinction.

TOM QUINN of Plymouth is V-P of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Men. JOHN GAQUIN was married April 21 to Eleanor Mary O'Rourke of Roslindale. Another of our legal eagles, PHIL THOMPSON, attended the Atomic Law Forum in Washington to get first hand information on the legal liabilities involved in radiation work. He is counsel for Nuclear Metals, of Cambridge, Mass., where LEO CAPLICE is now Personnel Officer after his transfer from A. D. Little Co. More of our men active in the van of industrial progress include FRANCIS B. LORD, owner of the Lord Machine Co., manufacturers of electronic components in Waltham, Mass. He received a citation and a $500 award from the Pressed Metal Institute for redesigning and improving radar equipment.

RALPH DACEY, Vice-Pres. and Ass't Gen. Mgr. of Compo Shoe Machinery discussed his organization's relocation from Boston to Waltham before the Watch City Rotary Club recently. Continuing along corporate lines comes now FRANK McBRIDE, former FBI man, who is Secretary of the Corporation for Stamford Rolling Mills, in Springdale, Conn. After 13 years with the Bureau Frank joined Stamford Rolling as Director of Industrial Relations.

It isn't enough that DAVE WALSH is Physical Education chief for the Malden, Mass., elementary school system of 4600 pupils. He further risked life and limb as director of heats for the local Soap Box Derby. Dave has his Master's in Education and was formerly president of the Portland, Maine Little League. DAVE HURLEY is in Philadelphia where he is Federal Probation Officer, Acting-Ass't-in-Charge. He is teaching, is active in the National Guard and a major in the Reserves. In a similar but more remote area HENRI VALADE is principal of Oak Park Junior High, Oak Park, Mich., and a lt.-col. in the Air Force Reserves. PAUL MacKINNON is Supervisory Engineer in charge of maintenance and research at the Navy's Newport, R.I. NET Station.

JOHN F. CREMENS is a candidate for district attorney.

Johns-Manville Sales Corporation announces the reassignment of THOMAS F. TURNAN to its Providence office out of which he will handle sales of TRAN-SITE cement-asbestos pipe in Southeastern New England. In between sales his ceaseless search for news and dues continues. Send 'em along.

'40 WILLIAM F. JOY
44 Lincoln St., Melrose

Congratulations to TOM CUDMORE who was co-promoter of the Alumni Retreat again this year. The Retreat was held the first week-end in June and was very well attended. Several 1940 men were present.

JIM SULLIVAN is on the Social Service staff of the V. A. Hospital at Downey, Illinois. PAUL GREELEY continues to do his usual good job for the Lawrence Chamber of Commerce as its executive director. Paul held similar posts at Somerville and Salem.

VIN NASCA has now established his home in Falls Church, Virginia. Vin is with the F. B. I. in Washington.

JOHN McLAUGHLIN of Acton is active in the Shadowbrook Drive as well as in our own Alumni Fund Drive. John is with Raytheon as a physicist.

HARRY WHITE is one of our successful business men. He is the owner of the Furnace Brook Heating Co., dealing in fuel and heating equipment.

GEORGE O'BRIEN is with G. E. in Lynn and living in Wakefield where he is one of the mainstays of the Most Blessed Sacrament Church. He has two sons. Seen at the Varsity Club banquet were FATHER CHARLIE McCARTHY, DR. DICK WRIGHT, PAUL DUFFEY and FRANK AHEARN.

J. HARRY LYNCH is doing an outstanding job as headmaster of Newman Prep School. ATTY. JOHN L. McLAUGHLIN of Charlestown is practising law in Boston with offices at 18 Tremont Street.

DR. JOHN J. DOYLE is located in Rye, N. H., practising there and in the surrounding communities.

We are now in the midst of our 1956 Alumni Fund Drive. Our class did very well last year—let's keep up the good work this year and keep 1940 on top.

(Editor's Note) Congratulations to BILL JOY on his election as a director of the Alumni Association.

'41 CHARLES J. MURPHY
142 Summer St., Somerville

Our fifteenth anniversary was celebrated with a dinner dance on May 30 and a reunion on Alumni Day which included Mass, a 1941 luncheon, parade of classes, and evening buffet. Among the out-of-townners present were JIM RODENBUSH from Philadelphia, BOB MURPHY, FRED JAQUITH, VIN WHELTON, HENRY HAMROCK, TOM MURPHY and WALTER DUBZINSKI.

FATHER FRANK DOLAN will be stationed in Hawaii in the near future, and FATHER JOHN KINCHLA is enjoying a South American cruise as chaplain. BOB RADOS will be chasing hurricanes out of Florida during the next few months. On July 1, BILL HOULIHAN takes over as executive secretary of the Naugatuck, Connecticut urban redevelopment program.

Some of the others present at one or both of the affairs were BILL BULGER, PAUL POST, ELMER ROSS, NICK SOTILE, JOHN BRADY, TOM GALLIGAN, DICK DEVEREAU, JOE O'REILLY, FATHERS: KERR, MAGUIRE, CONNORS, FINNIGAN, and POWERS, FRAN BLOUIN, JOHN DALY, BILL EVERETT, HENRY SHEEHAN, DAVE MERRICK, PAUL TRUE, JIM MURRAY, ARTHUR McCOURT, Dr. GEORGE McMANAMA, PAUL O'NEILL, JOHN BANE, JOE McCAFFERTY, DICK DAILY and FRANK COADY.

FARRAGHER will be co-chairmen for Alumni Week activities, assisted by TOM RUSSELL and ED McGRATH. For this committee many more volunteers are needed and it will be appreciated if you will help in making our 15th Anniversary an outstanding one by serving on the committee. Get in touch with Jack or Bernie or with ERNIE HANDY who is over-all chairman for class activities for the coming year.

Another general class meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 18th at Alumni Hall, 8 P.M. Refreshments will be served, and we hope all will make a special effort to be present.

The sympathy of the class is extended to JACK FITZGERALD on the death of his father.

TOM LAMOND has been promoted to production manager at Bolter Products Division of General Tire and Rubber Co., and BOB MOLLOY promoted to division superintendent of Accounting for New England Tel. & Tel.

GERRY ARMITAGE, Lieut.-Colonel, USMC, was graduated from the Regular Course at the Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, on June 15. He was one of 621 U. S. and Allied officers graduated from the 10-month course at the highest school of tactics in the U. S. Army. Prior to his assignment to Leavenworth, Gerry was Technical Advisor to the Venezuelan Navy in Caracas, Venezuela. The Armitages have three children, Michael, 7, Kathleen Marie, 5, and Mark, 3.

Concerning CBA — The Annual Banquet was held in April at Alumni Hall with about 25 in attendance. The nominating committee met in the usual telephone booth and the results were: TOM McDONALD, president, and AMBY CLAUS, sec'y-treasurer for the ensuing year.

FRANK MURPHY was awarded the degree of LL.M., at the June Commencement of Northeastern University.

PAUL SALIPANTE recently won a Sloan Fellowship to M. I. T. He was among a select group of 34 young business executives chosen from industrial concerns throughout the U. S. for participation in the executive development program at M.I.T. Congratulations.

Also in line for congratulations — JOHN and Jean GIBBONS on the birth of their second son and third child.

FRANK DEVER is a director of the Alumni Fund. Don't forget to send in your contribution early and ease the work of your class agents.

C.P.A. ED McCORMACK is now associated with the firm of Harris, Kerr, Forster & Co.

JIM BARNICLE was elected Deputy Grand Knight and AMBY CLAUS, Advocate of the Needham Council, K. of C.

JOHN MITCHELL, who is to be married in the Fall has already purchased a home in Wellesley and he will soon be joined in that community by the Grain-jers who are building a new home there.

The Father Stephen Shea Medal awarded annually by '42 CBA to the CBA student attaining the highest 4 year average in Philosophy resulted in a tie this year, and therefore two medals were awarded at the Class Day exercises.

The rabid baseball fan seen at the Milton Little League games this Spring has been MANAGER FRANK MURPHY.

ED McGRATH has been directing the Public Relations program for Shadowbrook.

Anyone looking for a golfing partner can find JIM REILLY out at Ponkapoag at 7 A.M. on any week-end morning—still shooting in the low seventies.

Have a good summer and get set for '57 activities.

THOMAS O'C. MURRAY, CBA
14 Churchill Rd., W. Roxbury

Our sincerest sympathy to his wife Katherine and other members of his family and our prayers for DON CURRIVAN, a Grantland Rice All-American end, a fine student and businessman and decent human being who died May 16th.

Col. Dave Egan in his picture paper column reported that DR. ALFRED M. DONOVAN had been tranquillizing him at Melrose Hospital when the Colonel had some heart troubles... (When Col. Egan is ever tranquillized that's an item for the American Medical Journal)... Same column, same date the Colonel pitched some posies for FATHER DAN MORAN, who once handled a smooth first basing job at the Heights for Freddie Maguire. Fr. Dan is at St. Mary's, Melrose, and is operating a "little league" for 150 children who have not been able to make the Little League. League has 10 teams; each boy plays for three innings. All get a chance to play.

JACK MAHONEY, the Court St. attorney, has announced his candidacy for the one of the three Ward 20 seats in the House of Representatives. His maiden flight two years ago saw him pile up a heavy vote but just a shade under the winner... JOHN SARGEANT has resigned from his Boston Police duties as a biologist and has opened a patent law firm in Wilmington, Del. He passed the bar exams a year ago...

Leading lights in the Alumni Fund are these legal eagles: PAUL GOOD, JOE HURLEY and JOHN McNAUGHT... You don't have to wait for them to ask for a class fund contribution, just send along the envelope with a check to the Alumni Office.

Congratulations to ED O'CONNOR and his bride the former Miss Mary A. Melanson, who were married in April. Ed is principal of the Samuel Brown School, Peabody. Mary is a Regis and B.U. grad... JOHN WHALEN has been appointed to the teaching staff at Framingham High School where he will teach Latin and English. Was at Peterboro, N.H....

WILLIAM F. McDONALD has been promoted to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital, Denver, Colo. He is assistant chief of orthopedic service. He saw service in Korea and Japan.

The THOMAS O'CONNELL MURRAYS are the parents of a third son, Donald, born March 29.

The sympathy of the class is extended to JIM KELLEHER on the death of his mother.

We would also have class members remember in their prayers FATHER BOB NAVIEN who expects to be hospitalized in July. We wish him a speedy and successful convalescence.

CHRIS FLYNN, CBA faculty, sends word that JOHN M. CATALDO has been elected State Auditor for the K. of C. John operates the National Freight Traffic Co.

GIL BOULEY has gone with the Toronto Argonauts as line coach. He has been quite successful in his business of selling Mutual Funds and was leading salesman in the country for a couple of months.

PAUL BURNS tells us that AL DICKENSHEID is with Columbian Carbon and is living at the Wing Foot Country Club just outside of New York.

JOE O'DONNELL has been appointed executive director of the Harvard University Trade Union Program.

The JOHN ELLIOTS have a son, John, Jr.

DON WHITE, Dean of the CBA, appears on TV on Tuesday evenings, Channel 2. Class lawyers at a get-together in Washington, D.C., included JIM O'DONNELL, LEONARD COLLINS, CHARLIE McALEER, president of the Washington Club, and AL McDERMOTT.

Congratulations to JOE FIGURITO on his recent marriage to Mary Calarese and to MATT CARROLL, JR., whose bride is the former Katherine Kinnier of Brighton.

Good luck to ED OWENS starting his law practice in Lowell; DR. JOSEPH E. SAUNDERS now practising in Nashua, N.H., and to DR. JOHN T. BERRY opening his office in Randolph.

REV. JOHN F. KENNEY has been awarded an M.S.L., Licentiate in Medieval Studies, from the Pontifical Institute at Toronto.

Among classmates on hand for Alumni Day was FRED LEONARD—he came up from Washington for the reunion.

TOM and Mary Louise SEAVER of Milford are the parents of their second child—Thomas Henry, Jr., born in April.

BILL CURLEY and CHARLIE McCREADY attended the All Day Business Conference held at the Heights, and talked about a possible monthly luncheon meeting of the class in Boston.

The CRONINS are at Humarock already, although TIM will not let that interfere with his developing the interest of the class in the Alumni Fund. Why not make his work easier by sending in your contribution now?

'46 LEO F. ROCHE, JR. 28 Thorndike St., Reading

Class members who attended both the luncheon and buffet on Alumni Day for a 10th anniversary reunion were GIL ARONS, LARRY DeGUGLIELMO and LEO ROCHE. BILL BANNAN was present for the buffet in the evening.

LARRY GAUGHAN is working for the Youth Service Board; SOL KRAFT, erstwhile druggist, may be found at Weldon Drug Co., Broadway, Chelsea; TED CALIANOS is with the C & O Insurance Agency, Boston; GIL ARONS at the Quartermaster Depot, Natick; BILL BANNAN practising law in Waltham, and MARIO FORTUNATA, D.M.D. is practising dentistry in Everett. Mario's home address is 22 Country Club Road, Melrose.

AL HOLZWASSER is general manager of Factory Outlet Shoe Stores in charge of 6 outlet stores.

On the faculty at the College—FRED ZAPPALA, CBA, and JOE BORNSTEIN in the Chemistry department.

The LEO ROCHEs are the proud parents of their first son and fourth child, Leo F., III.

'47 JAMES F. KILEY 294 Central Ave., Needham

PAUL RYDER was graduated from the Univ. of Detroit Law School on June 24. He is with the Ford Company in the Labor Relations office. He was recently elected president of the B. C. Club of Detroit, and is planning his '57 vacation to coincide with our tenth class reunion.

BERNIE FRIM has opened his office for the general practice of Dentistry at 1607 Commonwealth Ave., Brighton. He has one son, Jonathan Eric.

DICK FITZGERALD will be married in the fall to Joan Comba of Milford. She is a graduate of Newton College of the Sacred Heart.

"CHUCK" THOMAS is chief psychiatric social worker with the Holyoke Mental Health Center. He was formerly with the Catholic Charitable Guidance Center in New York.

HARRY ROBERTS, living on Roseen Road in Holbrook, is now working for Akers Transportation Co.

GEORGE DONELAN, Bayside, N. Y., is with the A. E. Staley Mfg. Co., Lexington Avenue, New York. George was here for Alumni Day.

Observed discussing plans for the 10th Anniversary of the class at Woodlawn Country Club were: JOHN McGONAGLE, DR. ED FLAHERTY, JIM RYAN, BILL O'HALLORAN, DICK FITZGERALD, ED CRONIN and TOM McMANUS.

HENRY GAITA has been appointed territorial manager of the Molded Pulp-Foodtainer Division of Diamond Match Co., with headquarters in Pittsburgh, Pa. He makes his home in the Mt. Lebanon section of Pittsburgh with his wife and two daughters, Lee and Susan.

'48 NICHOLAS C. PALUMBO 6 MacArthur St., Somerville JOHN H. O'NEILL, JR., CBA 92 Moraine St., Jamaica Plain

JIM Hogan has been promoted to vice-president of the Shea Chemical Corporation, Jeffersonville, Indiana; BILL NOONAN has moved over to the Bogardus Co., and has also assumed the duties of vice-president. Good luck to both.

JOE HARRINGTON wrote and wanted to know if anybody knew of an abandoned inn or rest home in Connecticut. He's been transferred and with his brood (5 children) he needs lots of room.

Among the recent married — ED RICHMOND to Rita B. Copel of Mat-tapan, and JOE McMAHON to Margery Ann Doyle of West Hartford, Conn. Joe is currently vice-president of the Ray G. Westine, Inc., Insurance Agency in Hartford.

SANFORD WEINERT, M.D., is engaged to Simone Solomont of Newton Centre. He is a resident at the VA Hospital in Jamaica Plain.

NICK PALUMBO is an account executive with the Jerome O'Leary Advertising Agency with whom he has been associated for the past four years. As A & S correspondent for 1948 Nick would very much appreciate receiving news on classmates. Why not drop a line to him or to JOHN O'NEILL — Address above.

'49 ROBERT G. CURRAN 1058 Tunbridge Rd., Baltimore, Md.

Thirty-odd members of the class of 1949 met the Monday following Alumni Day and voted upon a new set of by-laws for the class.

It developed from this and other meetings and what is determined by the by-laws that new class officers will be nominated at a meeting (all '49ers asked to attend) to be held the second Monday September 10.

On the last Monday evening of the month, September 24, the elections will be conducted in Alumni Hall. Voting must be done in person.

Bill Harney has been serving as Executive Chairman of the Planning Committee which has been guiding this rebirth of the Class of 1949.

The future plans call for a stag dinner the night of the elections and further social activities for all members.

TOM O'CONNOR, Assistant Professor of History at the College and Moderator of the recently established History Club, has been invited to participate in a special summer conference sponsored by the University of Kansas to discuss the Progressive Period in American History.

BOB CURRAN received his master's in hospital administration last month from Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and is to be further commended on the fact that he has been appointed Administrative Assistant to Dr Harry L. Chant, Associate Director of Professional Services at Johns Hopkins.

Further recognizing the ability of '49 men, Lakeside Laboratories, Inc., (Pharmaceuticals) of Milwaukee has announced the appointment of TOM JACKSON of Walpole as professional service representative in this area; JOHN W. SPELLMAN, JR., is account executive for The Bresnick Co., Inc., Advertising; JOHN R. KREMP will handle production field work out of the Providence office of The Shelby Mutual Insurance Co.

TOM RYAN, JR., is now actively engaged as an insurance broker at 629 Concord Ave., Cambridge, and RICHARD RILEY has resigned his position as an assistant register of the Essex Probate Court to devote full time to the practice of law with offices at 31 Exchange St., Lynn, and 80 Federal St., Boston.

MICHAEL TOOHIGH sent an invitation to the Class of '49 for his June 30th marriage to Barbara Jean Bissonnette of Fort Wayne, Indiana. FRED WILLETT is engaged to Patricia Kerr of Norwood. Congratulations to all concerned.

June—and traditional graduation days. A large number of men from the class received advanced degrees. BOB RICHARDS received a master of laws from N.Y.U.; KIRWIN MacMILLAN, BERNIE SMITH, DICK FLEMING, LARRY BENNETT, RENE COTE and TOM ZIPPOLI received their M.D.'s; JEAN GRENNON, JACK SPILLANE and RALPH MALAGODI were awarded their dental degrees. (Advise A & S correspondent of any omissions.) Many should remember JIM YANO, who recently graduated from the University of Hawaii.

Your correspondent witnessed ANDY PREVITE and JOHN VINCHESI receive the honors of admission into the K. of C.

Reports are that PHIL McAULIFFE, who teaches in Malden, was elected to the Wakefield Board of Selectmen in a spirited contest. For a treatise on misfeasance, malfeasance, non-feasance and just plain feasance, Phil, see Man as Man p. 537.

LT. GENE TINORY is directing an army reserve artillery battalion at the Heights. Want to join? LT. BOB CASEY, returned from Germany, spent a leave at home and has gone to Fort Sill for duty.

Recent engagements: Charlotte LaBonte and ALEXIS BLOOD, Beatrice Elfrink and TOM O'MALEY, Mary Ryan and DAVE BROWN.

FRAN McCAFFERTY, teaching in Boston, was married to Eleanor Edwards of Hyde Park in May. I met JOE SWEENEY and his lovely bride in Boston recently. She is the former Marie McNeil of South Braintree. Some time ago, a Jesuit seminarian of our class, studying in Toronto wrote to me and I've lost the letter. Would he try again, please.

Kindly remember in your prayers LT. STANLEY URBANEK who died in March while at Walter Reed Hospital. Our sincere sympathy to his wife and family. Also, as this issue goes to press, we received word of the accidental death in North Carolina of CAPTAIN JOHN E. SIMMONS, USMC. Our condolences to his wife and family. R.I.P.

How about the class wives dropping us a note to tell what the "Bosses" are doing and where they are located?

CBA news—Weddings have a strange habit of dominating the news of the class of '52. BOB TRIMPER married Miss Vilma Renken with the ceremony being performed by the Rev. R. J. Mc-

Here is the latest on the '53ers as compiled by the alumni association, the Boston and local newspapers, some friends and mostly hearsay...

The FRANK STAPLETONS have added a third to their notable family (and Frank I promise to drop you a line soon). I received a letter from PAUL KINCADE who is working for the James L. Mooney Co. of 77 Washington St., Boston. He sells furniture... wholesale. On a recent trip to Lenox, Mass. I found out that JACK RAHILLY who entered the Jesuits following College is at Plattsburg, N.Y. where he is continuing his studies... (The good Jesuits still need money to rebuild Shadowbrook.) Is MICKEY KELLY still in New Hampshire? NEIL SULLIVAN married his college sweetheart Jean Connelly. They are living in Mattapan. BILL McSWEENEY and Anne Cornelia are planning the big step this fall. BILL MATTEI married Lydia Anne Walczak of Salem. The wedding was last May. In April out in J.P. JACK BAILEY married Mary Harding... Ole' friend BOB BARRY and Mary Gauthier from Salem were married a few months ago. SAM O'NEIL and Patty Brown also are married... Presently residing in Arlington are MR. and Mrs. TOM KERR. She is the former Ellen McGreevy. JOSEPH "RALPH" MacDONALD and Mary McCauley are planning the big step in the near future. Their engagement was announced in May. Ginny O'Brien has announced her engagement to Jack Cahill. Betty Reagan and JOE McISAAC have announced their engagement... Other news shows that KEN HUNT has completed an Army Medical School and is now assigned to Fort Belvoir, Va. HAROLD CONNOLLY now attending B.U. grad school recently tossed the "Hammer" for 200 ft. 7 in. He holds the American record for 209 ft. 7 inches. Harold is going to Europe as a member of the U.S. Olympic team. JOE COFFEY just completed the Army M.P. school at Fort Gordon, Ga. PHIL NATALIE has been assigned a teaching position in Wenham... JACK MAHER has completed his basic training at Fort Dix...

1st LT. PAUL TWITCHELL was married on May 5 to Eunice A. O'Brien and they are now living at 802 N. Wayne St., Arlington, Va. Paul's uncle, Rev. John A. Tobin, S.J., of the College performed the ceremony.

Congratulations to TOM VANDER-SLICE of Newton who was granted his Ph.D. from Catholic University. He will go to Scotland for the academic year '56-'57 as a Fulbright scholar and will study at the university of St. Andrew, Dundee. Tom was recently married.

We are happy to announce the engagements of Miss Priscilla Anne Church to Mr. JAMES LAWRENCE TILBERT of Milton. A fall wedding is planned. Miss Judith A. Wasserman to Mr. MERRILL BAKER. Miss Anne Lacey Hall to Mr. JOSEPH GORMAN O'BRIEN; and Miss Geraldine Jankowski to Mr. JOSEPH DeSALVO.

At a 2:00 o'clock ceremony Sunday, April 15th, Ruth Bernard and BILL LENNON were joined together in marriage. Following the reception, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to an unannounced destination. They are now residing in Woburn. Bill is a salesman for Marr Scaffolding Company in South Boston.

Mrs. HOWARD RICHARD HARRISON (Carol HOPE Schycon) will live at Pleasurridge, Ky., while her husband is stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Knox.

A double ring ceremony united Marilyn R. Lapworth and LT. QUENTIN R. HUGHES in marriage. After a wedding trip to Bermuda, Lt. and Mrs. Hughes will live at Falmouth Heights. Lt. Hughes is serving in the air corps and is stationed at Otis Air Force Base.

JAMES J. ENRIGHT and Lillian G. Viola were married recently.

At a nuptial mass in the Gesu Church of University Heights, Ohio, Rosemary Jeanne Reifke, became the bride of JAMES JOSEPH LOWE, JR. The couple spent their honeymoon in Florida and are now residing in New York. Mr. Lowe is now associated with Halsey, Stuart & Company in their New York office.

'54 JOHN J. CURTIN, JR.
24 Laurel Lane, Dedham

The Second Annual Reunion was a great gabfest and general get-together. The attendance was surprisingly high—in fact so many came that space precludes enumerating them. Many who were unable to come wrote that their service obligations were nearly completed and they planned to make the next reunion. With all the '54 men returning from the service it looks like a banner blast for next year.

Germany seems almost defenseless as such '54 bulwarks as JIM SWEENEY, JOE KELLEY, JIM MAGILL, TOM ATKINSON, BOB FARRELL, TED BREAU and FRANK SHEEHAN all expect to be back in the States in time for the Third Annual. Frank reports that he had a reunion of his own with TED, PETE VASATURO and LOUIS TOTINO in Germany.

Jim Sweeney will open the books again when he leaves the Rheinland. He plans to enter the Law School in the Fall. When MANNY MELLO finishes his tour at Swarthmore, Penn., he also returns to student life at the School of Social Work in September. Others who wrote to say they couldn't be here were: "HARRY" HARRINGTON about to join civilian ranks; TOM LANE at Fort Bliss; DICK FOY, somewhere in Korea; MIKE CARPINELLA at Fort Sill, and BOBBY BAGGETT.

It looks like JOHN CONROY is trying to replace his brother '54ers. He was commissioned a second lieutenant at Fort Sill—and those draft boards haven't got us all yet!

Passing by: Commencement procession at the Heights—WAYNE COSTLEY and PAUL SALLY were in line to receive master's degrees.

Speaking of School, the men of '54 have been doing very well at the Law School. JIM KELLEY, TOM SALMON and TOM MANNING were members of teams that progressed to the quarter-finals of the "Bostonia Competition", the famous moot court competition judged by prominent members of bench and bar. JOE McDONNELL was a finalist, and the competition was won by a team composed of two classmates, BOB WELTS and JACK CURTIN. Jack later was elected Student Editor of the Annual Survey of Massachusetts Law and the Intramural Law Review of Boston College.

The Tycoon Club of '54 has a new member. BOB DONOVAN has been placed in charge of the northern New England area for a subsidiary of Westinghouse.

PAUL ARES operates Paul's Radio & Television Repair Shop from his home at 275 Massapoag Avenue, Sharon. He was married on November 24 last year to Claire L. Couter of R.I.

BILL BRADY received his M.Sc. in Public Health at the Amherst Commencement. "Those Wedding Bells" are still ringing. Latest to wait at the altar included: TOM YOUNG, who waited for Mary Clare Champagne; JOHN DONOHUE for Patricia Ann Greene; GEORGE McKENZIE for Jeanne Marie O'Brien; BOB RICCIUTI for Mildred Calandrella, and JOE WHITE for Ann McGee.

And a closing note—two new members of the "Proud Papa" Club, FRANK PATCHELL and MIKE CARPINELLA.

One fact that cannot be denied since the last issue of the "News" is that, if our classmates aren't being claimed by some lovely lassie, they are by Uncle Sam. The most recent graduates of the Naval Officers' School in Newport are: THOMAS GUTHRIE, CHARLES LYNCH, JOHN DEVANEY, and JAMES ALVORD. All will receive specialized training relative to their duty assignments.

Graduates of the Army's Anti-aircraft and Guided Missile School at Ft. Bliss, Texas were: HAROLD WHITTENBERGER, MAURICE "MO" O'CONNELL, and PAUL CROKE. "Mo" will soon be on his way to Japan for his assignment and Paul is stationed at Ft. Dawes, a Niki station.

DAN WALSH and DICK MURPHY are assigned to the 74th RCT at Ft. Devens, Mass. They are both in the same platoon and incidentally, CHARLIE COSTELLO is their platoon leader. Oh, Happy Days!

The latest additions to the Marine Corps are JOHN KEANE and BILL MURPHY. Both completed the 10 week Officer Candidate Course at Quantico, Va. and are now undergoing 5 months' training in the Officers' Basic School, also at Quantico. JOHN McDONNELL, who has already been through both schools, is assigned with a staging regiment in preparation for duty overseas.

JOHN BOLAND is with the 71st Div. Arty. at Ft. Lewis, Wash. DICK CARPENTER is at a Niki station near West Point. JOHN CARROLL is a Batry. Fire Direction Officer in the 41st F. A. Bn. stationed at Ft. Benning, Ga. JOHN MORROW is with an armored division at Ft. Knox. John is preparing to gyroscope to Europe. Also somewhere in Europe—HARRY BENNETT and DICK KING. TONY COLETTI is finishing basic training with the Air Force at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

DON BOLAND is a statistician in the Finance Corps at Ft. Jay, Governors Island, N.Y. Also assigned to the Finance Corps is HARRY SIMONDS, stationed at the Boston Army Base.

GEORGE MURPHY has graduated from the Armored Replacement Training Center's Clerical School at Ft. Knox. Overseas in England with the U.S. Army is JOHN COLLINS.

Engagements have been announced for: CHARLIE Baker to Joan Malloy of Dorchester; WALTER SULLIVAN to Margaret Donovan of Jamaica Plain; DAVE FLYNN to Marcia Ann Waters of Newtonville—Dave is with the Army in Iceland; AL TASSINARI to Carol Lani-gan of Arlington, Al is presently serving with the Armed forces in Korea; STEVE DOOLING to Joan Forrest, Steve is employed at Pratt-Whitney in Conn.

A June wedding for JOHN HOWLEY and Frances Claire McEntee of Brookline. Assisting as an usher at the ceremony was DAVE ROWLEY. Also among the newlyweds are: HARVEY BIGHAM to Esther F. Chaisson of Waltham and RALPH DONNELLY to Justine Cavanaugh of Chestnut Hill. The Donnellys will make their home in Quantico, Va. and the Bighams will live in Waltham. Harvey is attending Babson Institute in Wellesley.

Congratulations are now in order for JOE and Mary PAVONE on the birth of their daughter and for JIM and Norma POWERS on the arrival of their son.

At Tuft's Medical School are: FRANK DOYLE, BILL CALLAHAN, and LARRY BROWN. Larry is married and has a child. BOB CIERI is attending Tuft's Dental School.

Working in CPA firms are GEORGE MALONE and JERRY HENNESSEY. Both are with Haskins & Sells in N.Y.

TOM CASEY is at Stewart-Watts & Bollong in Boston. Jerry and Tom have recently taken the CPA exams. PAUL LOONEY is with Arthur Young's in N.Y. BILL MATTHEWS is an investment Broker with the firm of Kidder-Peabody.

DON HANLON is at the University of Chicago working for his masters. PAUL BEDDIA will receive his M.A. at Fordham in August and will then be employed by the Lincoln Electric Co. in Cleveland.

DON GROSS is the outside sales manager for the Monarch Aluminum Co. in Boston. Don is also recently married. Also employed at Monarch as a salesman is BOB BUCCIGROSS.

Heard from PHIL DOHERTY late in March. He was then stationed with the Navy in the Special Service Department at Cecil Field, Florida.

JACK WARREN is working in Winchester as a Cost Engineer for the B & M Railroad.

And now for the Piece de Resistance—By the time this article is published, COLEMAN "BUZZY" NEE and JOE ROURKE will be vacationing in Europe. Bon Voyage!

After four years the great clock on the Heights has finally swung full cycle and the class of '56 has reached the status of Alumni. During this new phase of our lives, let us try to keep the close relationship that we have had over the past. We have always been known as the class that does things together. For the future this is best accomplished in the Alumni, and we ask that you notify one of the above classmates or the Alumni office of any change of address.

Congratulations are in order to BOB COCHRAN, BOB FONTANA, PAUL CRAIG and the class secretary LENNY CLARK on their recent marriages. Also to the DICK SKEFFINGTON'S on their new arrival.

President JIM BARRY and TOM STOUTER have jobs with Tel. and Tel. Jim and Tom will both work in Boston.

JIM BROSNAHAN plans to study law at Harvard and OWEN LYNCH will study law at B. C.

COLIN MacGILLIVRAY and PAT McDEVITT, both from Somerville, are studying at Newport, R.I.

JACK BERGIN is working at duPont in Delaware. FRANK DONOVAN and PAUL SULLIVAN are working with the Ford Company.

JOHN MAHANEY, NORMAN ROY, DICK SPENCER and PAUL MEADE will be starting into full swing on the G.E. training program by this time.

In September PHIL DAWSON will be starting a career of teaching and coaching at Chevrus High in Portland, Maine.

Congratulations to BILL KENNEDY and DICK MYLES on their recent betrothals.

LOU ABRUZZO and NORM DUQUETTE have announced their wedding plans, Lou in August and Norm in September. Norm will be studying at B.C. graduate school in the fall.

JIM DUFFY and NEIL MORIARTY have their vacation planned for them by Uncle Sam. They will be at Quantico.

JOHN SPURK will be making good use of his Fulbright Award to Germany.

We may be seeing JIM DOYLE on "The Big Story," for Jim will be working for the Worcester Telegram.

Those who have planned to go to Medical School are GEORGE BERNIER, NICK TAURASO, GENE MCCARTHY, PAUL COLLINS, and MARTY BECKER. George and Nick will go to Harvard, while Paul and Marty will go to Georgetown and Tufts respectively, and Gene to Yale.

PAUL LEAHY, HANK QUARLES, GENE TAMBASCIO, JOE FIORE, MIKE CASOLI, PAT DeCAPUA, and DAVE FINNEGAN will begin their legal careers at B.C. Law School. FRED COREY is also planning to take up law at Georgetown.

DICK FITZPATRICK and WALLY EATON will be at Newport, R.I. for O.C.S. training, along with nearly 30 more graduates.

BILL KEEFE and ART CALLAHAN are going to school at Pratt, Whitney in Hartford.

There are a number of alumni going to graduate schools, both at B.C. and elsewhere. Some of these are JOHN KEATING, who is going to Wisconsin; GEORGE CARTIER to Holy Cross for Chemistry; and DICK DAY is going to Fordham for Psychology.

Intown

GEORGE L. KEEFE, '47
57 Aspinwall Ave., Brookline

The Alumni Night at Blinstrub's Village on May 6 was a blazing social success and the financial return was substantial although it did not approach last year's healthy total.

The Annual Intown Alumni Family outing is planned for Saturday, June 30, at Treasure Island, Wollaston.

Our thanks to our Spiritual Director, Father Dan O'Connor, for a spiritually rewarding Day of Recollection at the Heights and informal corporate Communion and breakfast at Newbury St. Father Dan just celebrated the Silver Jubilee of his ordination. Our prayers and congratulations, Father.

Also many thanks to Paul Walsh of Food & Drug Division, Department of Public Health, for enlightening talk on narcotics at our May meeting.

Congrats to GERARD B. MULLIN, '52, recently appointed Personnel Director for City of Quincy. Timmy has been statistician in Quincy Health Department for past ten years. He will also serve as city safety director. A busy chap, he also continues studies at Harvard School of Public Health.

JOHN ("MONSIGNOR") DOWCETT, '51, has just sweated out a year at our Law School.

FRED DOHERTY, '51, is well on way toward doctorate at B.U.

GERALD McDONALD, '47, has just received Ph.D. from Stanford U. and has been appointed to faculty at Arizona U. He has been teaching at Santa Clara U. for past nine years.

If you want to know Boston after midnight, just ask our President, GERRY WEIDMANN, police reporter for the Boston Globe.

Toodle-oo until the Fall, when your correspondent shall expect to hear from you. Don't forget to write.

Law School

JOSEPH F. MCCARTHY, LL.B., '36
11 Hardwick St., Brighton

The Alumni Supper Meeting of May 29 was a decided success with about 150 graduates and friends in attendance. United States Attorney Anthony Julian, '25, spoke in a most interesting way on the functions of the office of the U.S. Attorney, with particular reference to cases involving evasion of income taxes. Another high light of the evening was the unveiling of an excellent portrait of Professor William J. O'Keefe who has been on the Faculty from the opening of the Law School 27 years ago. Dean William J. Kenealy, S.J., expressed the warm and sincere sentiments which the Alumni have for Professor O'Keefe and the Professor in turn responded in his usual gracious manner. ATTORNEY JOHN F. ELIOTT, class of 1949, was Chairman for this meeting which brought to a close the most successful series of meetings which the Alumni Association has held in recent years.

ATTORNEY JACK STURTEVANT, '47 of Whitman, has been appointed an Assistant District Attorney for Plymouth County. He has been practising law in Whitman for the past 9 years in association with his wife, MADELYN who is a graduate of the Law School with the class of 1948. RICHARD E. SCOTT, '48, LL.M. from New York University Law School, '50 has been appointed Head Counsel for Gulf Oil Company in New England, with offices in the Park Square Bldg; FRANCIS L. KELLY, '48, has been appointed personnel and office manager for the new Natick plant of the Carling Brewing Co.; RICHARD J. BERNARD, '49, now residing in Skokie, Illinois, is on the legal staff of the Association of Western Railways, Chicago, Ill.; WILLIAM J. McAULIFFE, '49, also a resident of Skokie, Illinois, is associated with the Law Department of the American Medical Associations in Chicago; WILLIAM C. LAWLER, '49, has moved from Needham, Mass. to Santa Rosa, California, where he is District Manager in Northern California for the Shell Oil Company; JOHN P. CURLEY, JR., '52, has been elected President of the Weymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is associated with the Boston Legal Aid Society; WILLIAM A. SHUE, '49, formerly with the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Division, has opened his office for the practice of law at 34 Grand View Avenue, Wollaston, Mass.; JAMES T. LODGE, '50, is associated with the firm of Armstrong and Gibbons Providence, R.I.; KENNETH F. McLAUGHLIN, '50, maintains his office at 196 Main Street, Nashua, N.H.; THOMAS J. BARRETT, '51, is in practice at 1115 Main Street, Bridgeport, Conn.; JOSEPH F. DEVAN, '51, is with the firm of Sheehan, Phinney & Bass, Manchester, N.H.; PHYLLIS A. LEVINE, '51, is now located with Rein, Mound and Cotton, N.Y. City; EUGENE J. RATTI, '51, is in the legal department of the Boston and Maine R.R., Boston; EVERETT T. ALLEN, '52, was recently appointed Supervisor of Group Pension Administration in the Group Department of the New England Mutual Life Ins. Co., Boston; ROBERT C. ROBINSON, '52, in practice in Portland, Maine and active in many civic and fraternal affairs was recently named publicity director for this year's Catholic Charities Campaign for the City of Portland.

Cubs and Old Hands

Newspapers and food companies set high qualifications for their "cubs"—but they never let them run news desks or super markets.

Under America's exacting standards for facts and food these are jobs for "old hands" whose skill and judgment have been seasoned through long experience.

In carrying out our policy of efficient food distribution, for example, we lean heavily on the 6,000 "old hands" who are members of our Twenty-five Year Club.

The seasoned skills and judgment of these men and women come from a combined record of over 150,000 years of valuable food business know-how. They help us to—

1. Hold down the costs of our operations, so that we can give people more good food for their money.
2. See that our stores are always well stocked with the kinds of food people want.
3. Keep our foods at peak quality and freshness.
4. Give prompt and courteous service, so that our customers will find shopping a pleasant and satisfying experience.

These are the same jobs that cause us to set high qualifications for our "cubs"—since they will be the "old hands" of tomorrow. We are proud of the high caliber young people who continue to join us and remain to become experienced leaders in our operations.

Because of our people and policies, millions of American families shop with confidence at A & P, knowing that everything they buy will be honestly represented . . . knowing that the quality, price, weight and measure will be right . . . and knowing that their satisfaction is unconditionally guaranteed.
